A woman's spiritual struggles can have a profound impact on her health. It is through our bodies that we are tempted. It is also through our bodies that we serve God. Does God care about our physical struggles? This six-week interactive study examines the stories of biblical women to reveal that God cares deeply about our bodies and our health. Each week's lesson will combine a Bible story (such as Esther, Hannah or the woman with the issue of blood) with a health issue (such as stress, hormones or depression) to lead women to greater spiritual and physical health. This study emphasizes that what we eat and drink, how much sleep we get and how we respond to stress affects our service to God. Each week includes studies for five days. This study is not intended to diagnose or treat any health condition the reader may have. Rather, its purpose is to motivate the believer to realize how much God cares about our physical condition and its relation to our spiritual lives.

What does it take to fuel a faith that burns bright, no matter what? At different times in our spiritual journey, we may discover that we've somehow developed apathy toward the things of God. Instead of being fueled by spiritual passion, our faith seems to be running on autopilot—or maybe sputtering to a halt as we seek excuses to avoid spiritual engagement. Through this six-week study, your eyes will be opened to the things that can undermine our interest in the things of God, and you'll discover practical steps you can take to ignite a fire that will propel you toward a deeper, more meaningful faith.

The Carpenter and the Cradle Abingdon Press Sociologists studying the early church often attribute its growth to the sense of belonging it offered people in a world where belonging was limited to those with things such as property, high status, and birthright. Scripture is clear that we belong to God's people even when we appear to be outsiders.

After over 2000 years of existence as an institution, we can easily take for granted that we know what the church is. It is instructive to look at how the first members of the church understood the purpose of assembling as a group, how this has shaped our understanding of church, and how our understanding might need to expand. The opening of God's people to both Jews and Greeks, men and women, masters and slaves required people previously unaccustomed to eating together to sit down at a common table. The practice of open table fellowship in the church is a sign of God's shared abundance, ministry of reconciliation, and celebration. Adult Bible Studies Fall 2021 Theme: Belong Unit 1: Outside In Sociologists studying the story of the early church often attribute the growth of the church to the sense of belonging that it offered people in a world where belonging was limited to those with things such as property, high status, and/or birthright. This unit of lessons looks at the various ways that the Bible makes clear how we belong to God's people even when we appear to be outsiders. Several of the lessons point out where we as human beings insert distinctions that restrict

membership within the community of Christ. Scriptures: Jeremiah 29:1-23; Luke 7:36-50; Galatians 2:11-21; Philippians 3:2-21; Ephesians 2:19-21 Spiritual Practice: Hospitality Unit 2: Into the Future After over 2000 years of existence as an institution, we can easily take for granted that we know what the church is. This unit invites readers to look at it from	the view of the community living into the future. The Greek word for church, ekklesia, is not a word that the first members of the church associated with a religious activity. The word signifies the assembly of the people of God. It is instructive to look at what their understanding of the purpose of assembling as a group signified, how it has shaped our understanding of church, and	how reading these texts might renew and expand our understanding . Scriptures: Acts 2:37-47;1 Corinthians 12:12-31; Matthew 16:13-19; Revelation 3:1-6, 14-20; Deuteronomy 29:10-29 Spiritual Practice: Community Unit 3: The Fellowship of the Table Once one enters the Church through baptism, the central identity marker for membership in the church

is participation in Communion. The opening of God's people to both Jews and Greeks, men and women, masters and slaves required people previously unaccustomed to eating together to sit down at a common table. When we look at the Gospel narratives, we see Jesus modeling open table fellowship. Once upon the beginning of time (though this is a true story), there was a Carpenter. A Master Carpenter. A Carpenter unlike any other. He decided on His plans and set to work. He spent generations ... then centuries ... then millennia intricately and painstakingly (often agonizingly) fashioning His masterpiece. When it was ready, He proudly displayed ... a cradle?!!! What's more, it looked like a roughly-hewn cattle-feed trough! But He is a Carpenter unlike any other. He doesn't do things the way we would expect... This study steps back to take a look at the Big Picture of God's Story of the House He's been building since the beginning of time. It's an old, familiar Story. For some, it may be too familiar. They may have lost the thread of the plot line in the details they've heard dozens of times. For some, it may not be familiar at all. They may know only bits and pieces and have never seen the Story put together. For either those to whom the Story is too familiar or those to whom the Story isn't familiar enough, this study may give an entirely new view of God's Story we call the Bible. THE CARPENTER AND THE CRADLE is a Bible Study for groups or individuals. winter, our Bible lessons follow the theme "Power and Love." The lessons first challenge us to try to understand Scripture, particularly the Nativity accounts, from the position of vulnerability and powerlessness. They then move to a closer look at what it means to belong to the family of God and culminate in a series of lessons on love and how it informs and changes our relationships.

The writer of the student book is Sue Mink. Unit 1 Power and Vulnerability God's incarnation was into a poor family from a village of no consequence, vulnerable to the whims and machinations of the mighty Roman Empire. While some people reading this Bible study can relate to the poverty and obscurity, most will read it as citizens of a great world power. Some people know from experience that power can be abused even against a government's own citizens, but others have known only the protection and benefits of that power. These lessons invite us to read the Nativity stories from the vantage point of the victims of empire. Scriptures: Judges 9:1-15; Matthew 1:1-25; Matthew 2:1-12; Matthew 2:13-15 Spiritual Practice: Acts of Mercy Unit 2 Power and

Belonging The lessons in this unit follow the trajectory of biblical imagery for faith development from adoption through baptism and infancy in faith, into youthful excitement and exuberance, and then to a mature faith that struggles, challenges, and questions. Scriptures: Galatians 3:23—4:7; Luke 15:11-32; John 17:1-24 and Ephesians 4:14; Colossians 3:12-17;	Matthew 22:1-14 Spiritual Practice: Rule of Life Unit 3 The Power of Love One of the distinct traits of biblical theology is the emphasis on God's hesed ("lovingkindness") and Jesus' selfless love. In the early twentieth century, a great deal of ink was spilled trying to distinguish agápe love by which we become channels of God's love from philía, friendship in which reciprocity is	important, and éros, a passionate sort of love. Recent scholarship finds that Greek and biblical thought blurs the lines of agápe and philía and finds a greater emphasis on relationships. While we should enact our love without thoughts of personal gain, the ultimate goal of loving our enemies is becoming their friend. Scriptures: 1 John 4:7-21 and Ruth 4; 1 Kings 3:16-28; 1 Samuel

David C Cook Lesson study is a professional development process that teachers engage in to systematically examine their practice, with the goal of becoming more effective. Originating in Japan, lesson study has gained significant momentum in the mathematics education community in recent years. As a process for professional development, lesson study became highly visible when it was proposed as a means of supporting the common practice of promoting better teaching by disseminating documents like standards, benchmarks and nationally validated curricula. While the body of knowledge about lesson study is growing, it remains somewhat elusive and composed of discrete research endeavors. As a new research area there is no coherent knowledge base yet. This book will contribute to the field bringing the work of researchers and practitioners together to create a resource for extant work. This book describes several aspects of Lesson Study, amongst others: it gives an historical overview of the concept, it addresses issues related to learning and teaching mathematics, it looks at the role of the teacher in the process. The last two sections of the book look at how lesson Study can be used with preservice mathematics teachers and at university mathematics methods teaching. This study guides the student through the inductive Bible study methodology as a means of valuable training. The study focuses on the message for Philemon and the Christian church in the city of Colossae. The in-depth two week course covers the many dimensions of inductive study and this shorter lesson will challenge beginning or advanced students of the Bible. The study provides several options for the lessons. The student could complete the observation questions followed by application questions, or complete the remainder of the lesson for an in-depth study. Students could also study some of the portions of the lesson beyond the observation questions, including many word studies from the original Greek text. The study also offers a reflective time in Scripture every day addressing the lifestyle of those who follow after Christ and then ends with a time of worship. When a group is meeting weekly to discuss the lessons, each student will benefit from the review discussion suggested by possibilities in the accompanying leaders guide. The Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal. Walk With Me Through the WordWalk With Me Through the Word is a 13 lesson/13 week Bible study that will take you through the Bible plan for salvation. The first lesson warns about who and what is controlling your mind. You need to have complete control over your own decisions and overcome anything and anyone who tries to control your mind. There are warnings about devices such as the T.V., Computer, gaming and the cell phone which is many were honest, they are already under its spell. The 2nd lesson lets us know that our Savior, Jesus Christ, is ALIVE for EVERMORE! Lesson 3 tells us that God hates sin and why. He loves us so much and sin destroys that relationship He desires to have with us.

That's why He died, that's why He arose and lives forever! The Fourth lesson begins to lay out the salvation plan. Step #1, repentance. Lesson 5 is an exhaustive lesson on water baptism and studies out the methods, the meanings and under what name we must be baptized. The Sixth lesson study is about the proper baptism. After these two lessons, one who is intent upon his salvation will know and prayerfully will believe every aspect of baptism. Lesson 7 studies the Born Again experience and the 8th lesson teaches about the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Lesson 9 is about rightly dividing the Word of truth. We will never understand the plan of salvation is we don't rightly divide God's Word. Lesson 10 begins the study of the Gifts of the Spirit and the rest of the lessons dive into the topic of tongues. The Study is intended to bring people into the truth of God's Word through an intensive study of the Bible. A lesson a week will bring the student to a close of this study in thirteen weeks, approximately 3 months. As parents, we all desire our children to grow up with noble character. Unfortunately, bad character is easier to learn than noble character. This is why it is so important for parents to be intentional about teaching the type of character they desire to see in their children. This study will help you instill noble character in your children with easy lessons that focus on 12 character traits. Each week's character focuses on one positive Bible story demonstrating	the character trait and one negative Bible story demonstrating the lack of the character trait. Also included in each week's lesson is the character trait's definition, a memory verse, writing assignments, copywork, and	a word study. A suggested weekly lesson plan is included. Appropriate for Grades 3rd through 6th or can be used as a family devotion. Are you ready to be intentional about raising children with noble character? Let's get started!
