MCAT Critical Analysis and Reasoning Skills Review, 2nd Edition Princeton Review

Gross, embarrassing, and just plain silly questions about boogers, bugs, smelly socks, itchy scabs, and more! Adapted from the hugely popular board game, this interactive and completely engaging book serves up hundreds of bizarre, embarrassing, sometimes ethical and sometimes stomach-churning dilemmas that kids will love to pose to their friends and siblings, whether in the backseat, on a sleepover, at a party, on a rainy day, or during a lull in the lunchroom (if you dare). Ponder the icky: Would you rather eat 10 pounds of cheese -OR- a bucket of peanut butter—with nothing to drink? The exponentially icky: Would you rather drink liquid found leaking from a garbage can -OR- chew on a hairy clump found between the cushions of an old couch? The fantastic: Would you rather be able to talk with all animals -OR- be able to understand all languages? The priority-testing: As a soccer player, would you rather mess up and score a goal for the other team but still have your team win -OR- play your best game ever even though your team loses? And the hair-raising: Would you rather swim across a river that is filled with crocodiles -OR- spend the night on an island where man-eating tigers live? Fascinating sidebars throughout are filled with interesting ancillary information—the nature of drool, left-handedness vs. right-handedness, what's dangerously filthy and what's just gross, why we blush when we're embarrassed—so kids can learn something as they laugh!

Beauty Queen Princeton Review

Are you getting what you want out of life? Do you know where you draw the line when it comes to sex, money, cheating on your income tax ... or accepting an indecent proposal? Becoming aware of your values is the key to making wise choices in all aspects of your life, from picking a partner to buying a house. Created by Dr. Sidney Simon, coauthor of the bestselling Getting Unstuck, and two other leading professionals, this workbook has already had an impact on hundreds of thousands of lives. Its scores of intriguing, interactive exercises were designed to uncover the hidden beliefs that reveal what matters most to you, how you deal with life-changing conflicts, which career choices will make you happiest, what leisure time activities provide you with the most pleasure, where you honestly stand on controversial issues, what day-to-day events are likely to make you angry ... excited ... anxious ... confident, how best to motivate yourself, and what beliefs can cause conflict in your family or love relationship.

The Princeton Review MCAT Complete Princeton Review
The perfect gag gift that blends absurdity, wit, and pop culture in a collection of laugh-out-loud funny and irresistibly thought-provoking dilemmas. Within these pages are over 200 hilarious questions that ask readers to look deep inside themselves and choose between two equally undesirable—or desirable—options. Prepare to be stumped by quandaries like: • Would you rather watch a porn movie with your parents, or watch a porn movie starring your parents? • Would you rather fight Mike Tyson, or talk like him? • Would you rather live in a world where at the end of a rainbow, there really was a pot of gold, or where at the end of a rainbow there were 500 cases of Pabst Blue Ribbon? Filled with twisted insights, Would You Rather... is brain candy to tempt even the most finicky palate.

Gross Out Amaryllis - an imprint of Manjul Publishing House

With 150+ gross, hilarious, and extra-difficult would you rather questions, the whole family will enjoy this unique choice-based game. Decide whether you'd rather eat a pudding full of nails or drink a coffee full of hair, or whether you'd eat toothpaste or drink chilli water, and much, much more! Great for the whole family and for children above 7, this fun game is a great way to pass the time, bond with your family, and contemplate the tough questions that you thought you'd never have to answer! Here's just a sneak preview of what you'll get inside: Would you rather drink a glass of drained water from a washing machine OR a glass of sink water left over from cleaning food plates of a restaurant? Would you rather gargle from the shaving bowl containing shaved hairs, shaving cream and water OR shampoo your hair with cat pee? Would you rather eat toffees made of dog vomit OR eat burger having a spread of mucus? So if you're looking for a gross would you rather that forces you to make those tough decisions, you'll love this unique and hilarious book!

Sessional Papers Would You Rather... ? Super Secrets!

This all-new volume is absolutely crammed with the completely tasteless -- yet entirely age-appropriate -- questions of which the younger set of fans can't get enough. Educators and librarians alike put aside their queasiness to praise the Would You Rather . . . ? books aimed at youthful readers for getting the most resistant audience not just reading, but discussing what they've read--stealthily letting grown-ups be sure of comprehension. As a gateway book for reluctant readers, this new collection sparks the imagination, building the literacy and reasoning skills that will serve young people well when they select their next (and next, and next, and next) book.

4,000 Questions for Getting to Know Anyone and Everyone Grand Central Publishing

Booksmart meets Never Have I Ever in this Latinx road trip adventure—a big-hearted, voice-driven YA about two sisters who couldn't be more different, but become begrudging partners on their school's cross-country college trip—from debut author Angela Velez. Perfect for fans of Lilliam Rivera, Jenny Han, and Sandhya Menon. Overachiever Luz “Lulu” Zavala has straight As, perfect attendance, and a solid ten-year plan. First up: nail her interview for a dream internship at Stanford, the last stop on her school's cross-country college road trip. The only flaw in her plan is Clara, her oldest sister, who went off to college and sparked a massive fight with their overprotective Peruvian mom, who is now convinced that out-of-state-college will destroy their family. If Lulu can't fix whatever went wrong between them, the whole trip—and her future—will be a waste. Middle sister Milagro wants nothing to do with college or a nerdy class field trip. Then a spot opens up on the trip just as her own spring break plans (Operation Don't Die a Virgin) are thwarted, and she hops on the bus with her glittery lipsticks, more concerned about getting back at her ex than she is about schools or any family drama. But the trip opens her eyes about possibilities she'd never imagined for herself. Maybe she is more than the boy-crazy girl everyone seems to think she is. On a journey from Baltimore all the way to San Francisco, Lulu and Milagro will become begrudging partners as they unpack weighty family expectations, uncover Clara's secrets, and maybe even discover the true meaning of sisterhood.

You Gotta Be Kidding! Princeton Review Beauty Queen: The Pathway to Pageantry is a one-stop sourcebook on everything you ever wanted to know about pageantry – its meaning, history, inner mechanics, organisation and required preparedness.

The book throws light on the history of pageantry, and gives a very real account of what to expect at a pageant (the good and the bad). It explains in detail every aspect of pageant preparedness, such as body grooming, nutrition, wardrobe, catwalk, interview and judges' perspectives, while drawing on a number of examples about what worked for people and what did not. Bringing in information from the author's personal experiences, the book is the first of its kind and a unique attempt in presenting pageantry as a composition of science, art, and grace in equal proportions. It's not just for aspiring beauty queens but also for every individual who wants to look and feel healthy and beautiful.
