As a small business, filing your taxes properly can help you to save a lot of money. Therefore, it is very important that you keep an accurate record of your business expenses. So, you will need to save all your receipts. These receipts are what you will use to back up your claims when you are completing the various forms to file to the Internal Revenue Service or IRS. This is especially important when it comes to the authentication of the deductions that you can take as a small business. It is very important that you consult with an advisor or an accountant before you make the claim for certain deductions. This is to double check and ensure that you are qualified to take these deductions. Despite the overhaul of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, small businesses are still very fortunate in the fact that they still have quite a few deductions that they can claim. Here you will find some of the top tax deductions for small businesses for the year 2019.

John Wiley & Sons
In a pioneering work, Jeffrey Fear overturns the dominant understanding of German management as "backward" relative to the U.S. and uncovers an autonomous and sophisticated German managerial tradition. Beginning with founder August Thyssen--the Andrew Carnegie of Germany--Fear traces the evolution of management inside the Thyssen-Konzern and the Vereinigte Stahlwerke (United Steel Works) between 1871 and 1934.

About one-third of all military service members make permanent change of station (PCS) moves each year. These moves, which may involve the members' dependents and household goods, are a considerable cost to both the government and individual service members. Not all relocation and moving costs are covered by the government. Reimbursements are based on what property a member was authorized to move and weight allowances that vary by grade and dependents. GAO found that the average duration time between PCS moves was about two years. Personnel who were unmarried and without dependents had the least time between PCS moves. Among the services, the Marine Corps had the shortest average time between PCS moves. Among enlisted personnel, those in the combat occupations had the shortest time between moves; for officers, those who were in the intelligence and tactical operations areas had the shortest average tours. GAO found that the duration of PCS tours was related to satisfaction. Those with shorter time spent between moves were less likely to be satisfied and were more likely to have a spouse who favored the member leaving the military. The most frequently cited problems with PCS moves were losses or decreases in a spouse's income, changes in the cost of living, waits for permanent housing to become available, and spousal employment. Service members cited several reasons for why they traveled alone, including that the service member was separated or divorced, the service member's spouse worked or was in school, or the government would not pay for the cost of moving dependents. Those serving unaccompanied tours were less satisfied with the overall military way of life, types of assignments received, and amount of personal or family time available.

Employer's Tax Guide (Circular E) - The

Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), enacted on March 18, 2020, and amended by the COVID-related Tax Relief Act of 2020, provides certain employers with tax credits that reimburse them for the cost of providing paid sick and family leave wages to their employees for leave related to COVID-19. Qualified sick and family leave wages and the related credits for qualified sick and family leave wages are only reported on employment tax returns with respect to wages paid for leave taken in quarters beginning after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, unless extended by future legislation. If you paid qualified sick and family leave wages in 2021 for 2020 leave, you will claim the credit on your 2021 employment tax return. Under the FFCRA, certain employers with fewer than 500 employees provide paid sick and family leave to employees unable to work or telework. The FFCRA required such employers to provide leave to such employees after March 31, 2020, and before January 1, 2021. Publication 15 (For use in 2021)

Tax Guide for Managers and Sales

Personnel offers a concise and direct explanation of how you can take full advantage of existing tax laws and claim substantial deductions. The complex tax code can be daunting, and it is estimated that less than 10 percent of managers felt that they were filing their taxes accurately with all of the allowable write-offs. From job search and moving expenses to employee business expenses, there are dozens of possibilities for saving tax dollars - if you know how to document and claim them. If you have ever wondered if you are claiming all of the expenses you could, then Tax Guide for Managers and Sales Personnel is a must-read.
