What to Look For in Spring
Penguin UK
Practical and rich in resources, this book provides a roadmap to monitoring, evaluating, and implementing effective literacy instruction in grades PK-12. Designed for district and school leaders as well as literacy coaches and consultants, this book contains all the strategies, guidance, and tools you'll need to monitor the effectiveness of literacy instruction in your school or system. Top literacy experts Angela Peery and Tracey Shiel share concise, well-researched information about how to identify enriched literacy environments, what constitutes well-designed literacy lessons, and the components of effective literacy programs at each grade level. Chapters cover reading, writing, speaking and listening, as well as collaboration, technology, and more, and offer adaptable strategies for different environments. Tools such as checklists and conversation frames are included to help busy leaders and administrators effectively monitor literacy instruction and provide constructive, thorough feedback to teachers. Each chapter features: Check-Up Tools to review documents and observe instruction Check-In Tools to guide your conversations and feedback given to teachers Reflective Questions for system and school leaders and instructional coaches. The Outlook Hachette UK Provides advice on how to plan a winter garden that will thrive in hardiness zones six through nine of the southeastern U.S.; offers descriptions of over 450 appropriate flowers, shrubs, trees, and other plants; and includes descriptions of three gardens of the Southeast. What to Look for in Selecting Insulation Stackpole Books The British literary sensation—"the most startling, discomfiting, complicated, ungovernable, hilarious and heart-rending of memoirs " (The Telegraph)—the story of a celebrated writer's sudden descent into blindness, and of the redemptive journey into the past that her loss of sight sets in motion. Candia McWilliam, whose novels A Case of Knives, A Little Stranger, and Debatable Land made her a reader favorite throughout the United Kingdom and around the world, here breaks her decade-long silence with a searing, intimate memoir that fans of Lorna Sage's Bad Blood, Mary Karr's Lit, and Diana Athill's Somewhere Toward the End will agree “cements her status as one of our most important literary writers beyond question” (Financial Times).

Travel and Hospitality Career Directory Penguin UK

"With her Master of Social Work diploma still fresh in her hands, Rachel Greene Baldino embarked on a year-long journey as a new professional in a methadone clinic. She was ecstatic that she would be starting her career in a full-fledged counselor's position. But was she prepared for what lay ahead? Her personal account of the year that followed will give you an eye-opening glimpse into a place called "methadonia."

Welcome to Methadonia: a Social Worker's Candid Account of Life in a Methadone Clinic captures the sights, sounds, smells, and emotions found in such a place. The author honestly and openly describes her feelings about the work and the people, and describes in graphic terms what she observed during her year there. Besides chronicling her year as a counselor in a methadone setting, Baldino makes recommendations for changes to the treatment system."--Book jacket.

Nina Garcia's Look Book Routledge

"We must all listen to Nina Garcia. Sharp and genuine, her advice can make or break an outfit." - Tim Gunn, Fashion Consultant and Mentor of Project Runway "Believe me-there's pressure when you're deciding what to wear to a meeting with an iconic fashion designer or a member of the press. It can be terrifying. But instead of panicking, I stop, take a deep breath, and remember that I speak "fashion." And by the time you have read this book, you'll be able to speak the language of fashion too, at all the key moments of your life." -- from Nina Garcia's Look Book Every woman, at one time or another, has contemplated an all-important job interview, first date, formal party, or important presentation and wailed to herself and to her closest girlfriends, "What should I wear" In Nina Garcia's Look Book, style guru Nina Garcia solves this universal quandary with an inspired and unbeatable combination of fashion knowledge and common sense. She shows us the pieces, the accessories, and the strategies to create the looks that will take us from the first day on a job through the day we ask for a raise and beyond, from the first time we meet our boyfriend's parents (or his children) through the day we see our own children walk down the aisle. With Nina by your side, you can't go wrong. You'll have all the tips you will need to navigate every day looking your best. True style is not about having a closet full of expensive and beautiful things-it is instead about knowing when, where, and how to utilize what you have.

“How to Choose the Right Property - A Buyer's Guide to Home Selection” is a book filled with valuable information that goes beyond just “tips” for looking at a house. The topics and information in the book may prevent the buyer from experiencing unexpected expenses from existing conditions or problems that could have been foreseen by reasonable observations when buying a home. Most of the topics are easy to understand and will yield the reader a “trained eye” in learning what to look for – others topics are a bit more technical and to help in navigating those issues “Mr. Hardhat” a cartoon character will assist the reader in understanding what to look for. There is a glossary for technical terms and a reproducible work sheet in the back of the book that can be used for notations when reviewing different properties. Chapter 1 topics include: Traffic Volume & Flow, Location of Schools, Religious Centers, Local & Regional Shopping Centers, and Recreational Facilities, Environmental Conditions including Sights, Sounds, and Smells, Manufacturing & Industrial Facilities; Zoning, Home Owner's Associations, and Sex Offender's Neighborhood Lists. Chapter 2 topics include: Site Selection, Easements & Encroachments, Flood Zones, Site Drainage, Site Soils, Landscaping, Swimming Pools, Exterior Utilities including Water and Waste, and Electrical, the Available Public and Private Services, and Forest Fires. Chapter 3 topics include: General House Construction, Foundation Stability, Anchorage, and Types of Foundations, Exterior Walls with special notes on Siding and Light Weight Residential Stucco, Roofs, Decks and Porches, Termites & Other Bugs, Doors and Windows, Floors, Walls, and Ceilings, Moisture Conditions, and Interior

To assist you find the right partner for life, you should consider specific attributes and characteristics before choosing your Mr. right. This e-book explains 30 things you should look for in a man that you intend to spend the rest of your life with. A man having a head on his shoulders Your Mr. Right should be smart. Men having one head on their shoulders, as the saying goes, are quick thinkers and problem solvers. They make decisions so fast and take long to alter them. This is one of the best characteristics of a man with whom you should settle down in a relationship. According to research made by Psychology Today, the less likely he is to be unfaithful if he has a head straight on his shoulders. Positivity about life Being positive implies seeing the good in all things and people, even if there are some bad parts in them. An optimistic man will ignore all the negative things about life and only concentrate on what moves them forward – The positive. A person who recognizes positive things is also in a positive vibration. This means that their positivity will affect most items and people they interact with. A man who lives a positive life is optimistic and expects success and favorable results from their plans. Understand that a positive state of thinking yields more happiness and harmony, improves relationships, and attracts success into your life. Always think positive thoughts to uphold a positive outlook about life.  UPDATED FOR 2017.

Learn how to buy a house without getting ripped off! Alysse Musgrave, the owner of one of the country's oldest and most successful Exclusive Buyer Agencies, shows you how to avoid the financial traps and pitfalls that the real estate and mortgage industries have set for you. In Buying a Home: Don't Let Them Make a Monkey Out of You, you will learn, in a clear and concise way: * How to analyze floor plans * The trick to buying a home with great resale potential * The truth about real estate agents * How to fire your agent * All about FSBO's, foreclosures, new construction and MLS listed homes * What to look for when touring homes * The four most common negotiating strategies sellers use when responding to buyer offers * The one thing more important to a seller than price * How to write an offer that protects you * What repairs to request from the seller * How to force your loan officer to give you accurate pricing information and avoid a bait and switch at the closing table * Homeowner scams * All about mortgages, home warranties, homeowner's insurance, title insurance, and much more. In a real estate transaction the buyer assumes all of the risk. The seller walks away from the property and is free of any obligation or responsibility. The buyer pays for inspections, appraisals, closing costs, and ends up with the house and a mortgage. At best, buying a home is a complicated process. At worst, it can be an emotional and financial nightmare. Not only do you have to find a house that you love, you have to verify its condition, negotiate a good price, figure out how to pay for it, insure it, move in, all the while ensuring you are buying a home that you will be able to resell for a profit when the time comes. The list of things to consider is seemingly endless. The sensible information you'll find in this book is unlike anything you have read online or in any other real estate book. Buying a home is a complicated process, and this book simplifies it. You will learn how to make smart choices when you purchase your next home, and how to recognize fraud when you see it! Don't let them make a monkey out of you!
