When his doctor told him medical ethics proscribed four-year-long induced comas, Aldous J. Pennyfarthing decided to get woke and pen a series of letters to the ocher abomination squatting in the White House. He's dogged President Goofus through numerous scandals, countless brain farts, and loads of unbelievable boobery. In this third installment of his acclaimed series, Pennyfarthing picks up where he left off with the Amazon best-selling books "Dear F*cking Lunatic" and "Dear F*cking Moron," skewering Trump's boundless ego, bottomless stupidity, and brazen incompetence.

A fresh, fun, and "thought-provoking" New York Times bestseller about the American electoral college and why every vote counts from bestselling and award-winning duo Kelly DiPucchio and LeUyen Pham. "Where are the girls?" When Grace's teacher reveals that the United States has never had a female president, Grace decides she wants to be the nation's first and immediately jumpstarts her political career by running in her school's mock election! The race is tougher than she expected: her popular opponent declares that he's the "best man for the job" and seems to have captured the votes of all of the class's boys. But Grace is more determined than ever. Even if she can't be the best man for the job, she can certainly try to be the best person! This timely story not only gives readers a fun introduction to the American electoral system but also teaches the value of hard work, courage, independent thought -- and offers an inspiring example of how to choose our leaders.

Dear Pr*sident Aclown Don't Be Like Trump "Mom, why is Donald Trump such a jerk?" If you or your kids have ever asked this question, Don't Be Like Trump is here to inform and entertain you. Now that you're homeschooling during the Covid-19 pandemic, you may have to learn or teach about Trump yourself in the 2020 election. Trump provides the perfect example of how not to behave, speak, and treat people. Now there's a book to help your kids understand why Trump alarms[DL2] most Americans. Most kids' presidential biographies gloss over the scandals and bad behavior. We explain how Trump wants to return to an America that wasn't great for Blacks, women, immigrants, or anyone different. We explore his worrying relationship with dictators. Don't Be Like Trump explains the long history of useless border walls, Trump's military service (just kidding!), and the Resistance in an accessible, breezy style. Plus! 12 activities make learning about our awful president fun, including: - Impersonate the President- Get Rich Quick Using Trump's Proven Method- Prove You are Smarter than the President with Quizzes- Annoy President Donald Trump Eight Different Ways

A Kid's Guide to the White House The US president is the face of the United States to the rest of the world. However, he or she doesn't have unlimited power within the country. The president has certain powers given by the Constitution, including the ability to make treaties, appoint some important government officials, and veto laws. Readers learn the many duties of the president in simple, clear language appropriate for both younger readers and older readers looking for a succinct review of the topic. Fact boxes supplement the main content with important details about checks and balances, amendments, and more that affect the presidency today.

A Kids' Guide to America's First Ladies Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

Hilarious childhood biographies and full-color illustrations show how George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt, Barack Obama, and other presidents-to-be faced kid-sized problems growing up in America. Every president started out as a kid! Forget the legends, tall tales, and historic achievements—before they were presidents, the future leaders of the United States had regular-kid problems just like you. John F. Kennedy hated his big brother. Lyndon Johnson pulled pranks in class. Barack Obama was bothered by bullies. And Bill Clinton was crazy clumsy (he once broke his leg jumping rope). Kid Presidents tells all of their stories and more with full-color cartoon illustrations on every page. History has never been this much fun!

Imagine if we had a President who was 15 years old when he/she took office. Imagine that it was a young girl, too. Imagine if that President could speak more than ten languages and ended up being married to two of the most powerful leaders of other governments during her time in office. Imagine if our leader then entered into a war with the largest nation on the planet...and lost that war. This is exactly what happened to Cleopatra, or actually to Cleopatra VII Philopator, the very last pharaoh to rule Ancient Egypt. Find out more about this fascinating life in this biography! Adults! Turn away! This book is not for you! eKids Books is proud to present a new series of books for all the readers who matter the most: Kids, of course! Visit eKidsPress.com to learn more!

Just in time for election season, Dan Gutman's hugely popular THE KID WHO RAN FOR PRESIDENT is back. Humor, adventure, and excitement will draw kids into the world of elections and politics. "Hi! My name is Judson Moon. I'm 12 years old and I'm running for President of the YOU-nited States." So begins this fast-paced, funny, and surprising account of a boy's run for the Oval Office in the year 2000. Under the tutelage of Lane, his brainy friend and self-appointed campaign manager, the affable sixth-grader from Madison, Wisconsin, takes on the Democrats and Republicans as a Third Party candidate who can make waves. "Grown-ups have had the last one thousand years to mess up the world," Judd tells a reporter. "Now it's our turn."
