Official Guide to OET

The Occupational English Test (OET) is the exam of choice for healthcare professionals seeking to expand their career globally. Covering each sub-test individually, this book provides information that all candidates should know about: the test structure, exercises and tutorials in relevant language skills, how to prepare, and how to pass. This book also includes four complete practice tests, each of which includes all of the four sub-tests in the OET (writing, reading, listening and speaking). The writing practice tests include examples of high-scoring answers. The listening test audio is prepared using instructions from the real exam, and can be accessed using the YouTube link provided in the book. The reading tests include explanations for each correct answer, and reasoning for why other options are incorrect. This is a comprehensive and easy-to-understand guide to passing the OET, put together by Anna Hartford based on her years of experience in helping students to pass the exam and begin working in their healthcare profession. About the author: Anna Hartford is an Australian OET teacher who has spent many years preparing candidates for the Occupational English Test. Oet Updated Reading for All Professions

Dear Doctor is a course for doctors and other health professionals who need to write clearly and concisely in English. It is designed for self-study but can be adapted by teachers for classroom use. It provides full preparation for the letter writing component of the OET. The materials were originally developed for a group of refugee doctors in London UK. The book contains 12 units which all follow the same format: * A set of case notes followed by a writing task. * Exercises on selecting and organising content. * Exercises on vocabulary and grammar points arising from the task. * A "writing clinic" on technical aspects of writing like paragraphing and spelling. * Study tips and exam tips. * Answer key to all exercises * Example letters written by British doctors. The course is suitable for students with English language at or above IELTS 5.0 or CEFR B1. It is now one of the finalists for the 2020 ELTons awards offered by the British Council for the best new ELT courses and projects. Norman Whitby MA TEFL has been teaching English to health professionals for many years. He has authored course books on business

English and co-authored books on IELTS reading and writing skills. Stephen Nickless MRCGP is a retired doctor who teaches medical English and communication skills to international medical graduates at the Refugee Council.
