The two seas met in the middle of Broadway, swirling over the wooden paving blocks, and I couldn't help but shudder at the sight. All of Galveston appeared to be under water. Galveston, Texas, may be the booming	city of the brand-new twentieth century, but to Seth, it is the end of a dream. He longs to be a carpenter like his father, but his family has moved to Galveston so he can go to a good school. Still, the last few weeks of summer might not be so bad. Seth has a real job as a builder and the beach is within walking distance. Things seem to be looking up, until a storm warning is raised one sweltering afternoon. No	one could have imagined anything like this. Giant walls of water crash in from the sea. Shingles and bricks are deadly missiles flying through the air. People not hit by flying debris are swept away by rushing water. Forget the future, Seth and his family will be lucky to survive the next twenty- four hours. THE INSPIRATIONAL CLASSIC FROM THE MASTER STORYTELLER WHOSE BOOKS HAVE TOUCHED THE HEARTS OF OVER 40 MILLION READERS 'Mitch Albom sees the magical in the ordinary' Cecilia Ahern _____ To his mind, Eddie has lived an uninspiring life. Now an old man, his job is to fix rides at a seaside amusement park. On his eighty-third birthday,

Eddie's time on earth comes to an end. When a cart falls from the fairground, he rushes to save a little girl's life and tragically dies in the attempt. When Eddie awakens, he learns that the afterlife is not a destination, but a place where your existence is explained to you by five people - some of whom you knew, others who were ostensibly strangers. One by one, from childhood to soldier to old age, five individuals revisit their connections to Eddie on earth, illuminating the mysteries of his 'meaningless' life and revealing the haunting secret behind the eternal question: 'Why was I here?'

WHAT READERS SAY ABOUT THE FIVE PEOPLE YOU MEET IN HEAVEN

'Breathtakingly beautiful. A story that will stay with you forever' 'A beautiful and flawlessly choreographed book . . . No other book may ever compare' 'One of my favourite books . . . Wonderful, inspirational, and heart-warming! To me, it is a MUST READ! 'The book is beyond words . . . Well written, engaging, poignant' 'This really is a wonderful book. You should read it' Beyond a Child of God Scholastic UK Imagine what our world might look like if Christians became known for remarkable love, as well as life-giving truth. The stakes are high and the need is great for Christians to represent Jesus to a watching world. And today, we have more influence than ever before-- for better and for worse. We are among the first generations to have access to a global megaphone through social media. But it's not enough to speak truth louder to a noisy culture. To counter the reputation Christians have earned, our love must be just as loud. Ask evangelist Matt Brown, and he will tell you Christians today are facing a crisis of influence. In our rush to speak truth to today's tensions, cultural issues, and trending controversies, it becomes all too easy to focus on proving our points rather than extending God's grace. Conversely, when we seek only to love yet never proclaim a better way, we short-circuit God's plan. Truth Plus Love invites you to rediscover the biblical framework for engaging culture as ambassadors of Christ. Through biblical insight, cultural analysis, and practical principles, Matt Brown outlines how to champion truth without compromise, how to love unconditionally, and ultimately, how to step into this great adventure of representing God to the world. It's hard, it's messy, and it's the unfinished project of a lifetime, yet here we find our great adventure: representing God to a watching world.

Most Christians	know this scripture, but if they had a total revelation of what it means and all it entails, they would be walking in the same power that Jesus walked in when He lived on the earth. Jesus fulfilled God's plan for man by living in and ministering through the anointing in Him, and said greater works will we do than He did (John 14:12). Those works are a mystery to most modern Christians, but

the First Century Saints of God not only understood the mystery of God's greater works, they daily did them.----- Christianity is not a religion of man-made dogma and doctrine. It is fellowship with our creator. It is God Almighty, the Father of love and life, birthing and raising His family to bond with Him and enjoy the supernatural, miraculous, prosperous, totally-fulfilling life of Christ in them.

Christ means "the anointed one" and "Christ in you" means the Holy Ghost anointing power and presence of God in you. This is God's glorious plan for all of us. It was a plan that began in the book of Genesis and culminated four thousand years later, when God sent Jesus to destroy the works of Satan and fulfill God's plan for man to be made in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:26; Romans

8:29; 1 John 3:8). Jesus was the first Spirit-born, Spirit-filled man. He was the first man to fully work out His salvation and become conformed into the image and likeness of God in man. We, through Jesus, can likewise get Spirit-born, Spirit-filled, work out our salvation and become conformed into the image of God. We can live freed from Satan, self, sin, sickness and lack. Like our First Century forefathers, we can minister the good news of our freedom and abundant life in Christ to our family, friends and others with the same miracles signs and wonders Jesus did.----- --- God is not a respecter of persons. He did not give His first disciples anything more or different than what He has provided for us. The way the First Century Christians lived and ministered isn't unique to them. We can have what they had and do what they did. Once you have that revelation, you can study and apply God's scriptures to your life and live in the parental blessing that God spoke into man in the Garden of Eden. You will take back dominion over your personal life. You will enjoy the peace and prosperity of living in heavenly places in Christ Jesus upon earth. You will grow beyond a child of God and become a mature, love-filled, faith-empowered, Word-ministering, miracle-manifesting son or daughter of God who prospers in all your ways.-----

----- For more than 35 years, authors Gayle and Mike Mooney have learned to live and minister the faith filled, miraculous, abundant life of Jesus Christ. A few years ago God put on their hearts to create Agape Alive Ministries through which they share their experience, strength, hope and testimony of God's goodness. Beyond A Child Of God explores God's plan for man begun in Genesis with Adam and Eve, fulfilled with Jesus' death, burial and resurrection and manifested in the lives of His First Century New Testament believers. By reading and applying the Biblical truth found in this book, you too can grow beyond a child of God and fulfill Father's plan for your life.

Freak the Mighty

Penguin
Written by an L. A. County homicide detective and former atheist, Cold-Case Christianity examines the claims of the New Testament using the skills and strategies of a hard-to-convince criminal investigator. Christianity could be defined as a "cold case": it makes a claim about an event from the distant past for which there is little forensic evidence. In Cold-Case Christianity, J. Warner Wallace uses his nationally recognized skills as a homicide detective to look at the evidence and eyewitnesses behind Christian beliefs. Including gripping stories from his career and the visual techniques he developed in the courtroom, Wallace uses illustration to examine the powerful evidence that validates the claims of Christianity. A unique apologetic that speaks to readers' intense interest in detective stories, Cold-Case Christianity inspires readers to have confidence in Christ as it prepares them to articulate the case for Christianity. Walking in Truth Grade 7 Student Text Broadleaf Books Walking in the Spirit is a journey into what the Bible teaches about life in the Holy Spirit. Author Kenneth Berding uses the apostle Paul and his words in Romans 8 to model what it looks like to live both empowered and set free by the Spirit. Written at an accessible level, Berding speaks to a wide audience as he seeks to connect readers to the life of the Spirit. His practical guide covers a variety of topics, showing readers how to set their minds on the things of the Spirit, put to death the deeds of the body, be led by the Spirit, know the fatherhood of God, and hope and pray in the Spirit. Berding applies the Bible to life through many of his own personal experiences, helping readers make connections to their own spiritual journeys. Discussion questions for each chapter facilitate personal reflection and small-group study.

Harriet Tubman, freedom fighter and leader in the Underground Railroad, is one of the most significant figures in U.S. history. Her courage and determination in bringing enslaved people to freedom have established her as an icon of the abolitionist movement. But behind the history of the heroine called "Moses" was a woman of deep faith. In Walking the Way of Harriet Tubman, Therese Taylor-Stinson introduces Harriet, a woman born into slavery whose unwavering faith and practices in spirituality and contemplation carried her through insufferable abuse and hardship to become a leader for her people. Her profound internal liberation came from

deep roots in mysticism, Christianity, nature spirituality, and African Indigenous beliefs that empowered her own escape from enslavement-- giving her the strength and purpose to lead others on the road to freedom.	Harriet's lived spirituality illuminates a profound path forward for those of us longing for internal freedom, as well as justice and equity in our communities. As people of color, we must cultivate our full selves for our own	liberation and the liberation of our communities. As the luminous significance of Harriet Tubman's spiritual life is revealed, so too is the path to our own spiritual truth, advocacy, and racial justice as we follow in her footsteps.
