We're often searching for answers but what if the answers were in the questions we ask? What if the big answers were in the questions we don't dare ask? There are two people we need to ask. Ready? It's scary, I know. 1. Yourself 2. Others You might think asking others is hard but the true hard stuff, the real stuff, the oh-man-here-we-go level of awesome sauce begins with asking yourself. Here, let's do a quick survey and see if you're ready. ASK yourself these questions: 1. Are you ready for the next phase of your life to begin? 2. Have you been waiting for someone to reach out their hand and invite you to take things to the next level? 3. Do you know what you want? 4. Do you know when you want to get started with what you want? 5. Do you like sour cream on your burrito? 6. Are you too shy to ask for help? 7. Do you believe other people would like to help you if you ask them for help? 8. Did you know people like helping other people more than they like helping themselves? (PRO TIP: see questions #6 and #7) 9. Are you envisioning a burrito? What if your quick answer to the extremely important question #5 were as easy as the usually-more-difficult question #7? What if you could get more comfortable asking yourself the big questions? What if you could practice asking others for help and you got to the point where they starting asking you if they could help you? In best-selling author Bradley Charbonneau's latest book ASK, you'll uncover your answers to the questions you might want to maybe be asking yourself--and others. In this book, you'll discover: - How to ask for help without begging--and even turning around the tables so people get in line to help you - Why you first might just maybe want to ask yourself what your focus is at this point in your life - When to not ask anyone but yourself the question you most want the answer to - What to ask yourself each and every morning and evening - How to dig deep into your subconscious mind to get around that pesky conscious self Get ASK ;today to answer the question of, "What do I do next?" ASK is book 3 in the Repossible Series and a vital step before moving along the roadmap. 1. Repossible: An introductory guide to the question, "Who will you be next?" 2. Every Single Day: a clear roadmap towards lasting transformation in you 3. Ask: if life is a multiple choice quiz, this is the answer 4. Dare: challenge yourself to truly answer the questions and rocket forward 5. Create: you're ready to get real about achieving your dream, here's what to do 6. Decide: there's a fork in the road, you'll now know what do to 7. Meditate: this is the source of our creativity, power, and direction 8. Spark: there's only one thing better than creating: helping someone else create 9. Surrender: you've done your part, it's time to be invited to the big stage 10. Play: we're through the woods, it's time to exhale, smile, and play the game 11. Celebrate: compare your own today to your own yesterday and revel in the progress 12. Evaluate: measure how far you've come, forecast how far you'll go 13. Elevate: now that we're at the top of the mountain, it's time to scale up

Sometimes we get too caught up in our everyday lives that we tend to forget one of our most basic instincts as humans - to question. And our lives have indeed become so easy, so simple, that we never get curious anymore. Let's take a page from the great philosophers, who made it their life's work to ask questions the world desperately needed answers to. The questions cover anything and everything including animals, arts, geography, history, literature, movies, sports, television, and more. For example: -What animal's fingerprints are virtually indistinguishable from human fingerprints? -What is the windiest continent? -The dot over the letter "i" is called what? -Who originally said, "Houston, we've had a problem here"? -Kopi Luwak is a very expensive type of what? -What was the first country in the world to fully legalize marijuana? -On television's Sesame Street, what is the Cookie Monster's real name? - How many planets in our solar system have rings? -What is the most expensive man-made object ever built? -What is the only sports team to play on all seven continents? -Wile E. Coyote gets all his traps to try to catch the Roadrunner from what company?

An unlikely office romance (with a side of corporate angst). Sue ambles through work, life, and love all in the same manner: have no expectations. Once a bar is set, it only leaves room for disappointment. After years of working for the same company, Sue has developed a distaste for corporate culture and an aversion to superfluous socializing with co-workers. Long gone are the days of hyper motivation, genuine excitement, and grand aspirations of her youth. Sue goes about her days doing the bare minimum and prefers to be left alone. Her joy is coming home to her quiet one-bedroom apartment. This is peace. The ordinary suits her. That is, until the ordinary becomes everything but that. A new face shows up at work and ignites a series of changes in her otherwise predictable life. Sue's cynical spirit evolves when she bonds with a younger co-worker who becomes an integral part of her finding happiness (and who also helps alleviate her chronic allergy to people). This is a story about the little moments that make the heart palpitate, break, and revive again.

Introverts have gifts for the church and the world. But many churches tend to be extroverted places where introverts are marginalized. Some Christians end up feeling like it's not as faithful to be an introvert. Adam McHugh shows how introverts can live and minister in ways consistent with their personalities. He explains how introverts and extroverts process information and approach relationships differently and how introverts can practice Christian spirituality in ways that fit who they are. With practical illustrations from church and parachurch contexts, McHugh offers ways for introverts to serve, lead, worship, and even evangelize effectively. Introverts in the Church is essential reading for any introvert who has ever felt out of place, as well as for church leaders who want to make their churches more welcoming to introverts. This expanded edition has been revised throughout and includes new research on the neuroscience of introversion and material for parenting and encouraging introverted youth. Discover God's call and empowerment to thrive as an introvert, for the sake of the church and kingdom.

Questions for Couples Our Peaceful Family The Perfect Remedy for Cold Feet! More than half of all couples who become engaged this year will never make it to the altar. Why? Leading experts believe it's because couples fail to really get to know their potential mate before getting engaged. Relationship expert and noted couples counselor Norm Wright steers potential brides and grooms through a series of soul-searching questions to discern if they've really met "the One." Couples will be much more confident about whether or not to pursue marriage after completing these in-depth and personal questions. Norm also addresses the delicate subject of calling off the wedding if readers discover that a potential mate isn't actually meant to be a life partner.

A good story draws students in, engaging their hearts and minds---leaving them wanting more. God's story is like this...a captivating epic that stretches from the beginning of time, across our lives and into the future...calling us to find ourselves in it. We can help students to be captured by this amazing story, rather than seeing the Bible as confusing, boring or irrelevant. After ten years in youth ministry, Michael Novelli felt like he had tried everything to help his students connect with the Bible. Then, a missionary introduced him to a unique, ancient way to engage people with the Bible through story. Michael learned the art of 'Storying,' a sequential telling of Bible stories followed by a time of creative retelling and in-depth dialogue. God used this process to completely transform his youth group as they found themselves experiencing God in a whole new way. Take a journey into the amazing process of Storying, and discover how it can change your life and ministry. This new approach to learning builds a lasting theological foundation while challenging students to discover their unique identity and calling in God's story. Shaped by the Story helps you understand why Storying connects with students today, and provides all you need to introduce Storying to your group, including sample narratives and an interactive training DVD.

"Not to be missed!" —Marissa Meyer, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Lunar Chronicles "An explosion of emotion, intrigue, romance, and revolution." —Stephanie Garber, #1 New York Times bestselling author of the Caraval series In the tradition of The Lunar Chronicles, this sweeping reimagining of Les Misérables tells the story of three teens from very different backgrounds who are thrown together amidst the looming threat of revolution on the French planet of Laterre. A thief. An officer. A guardian. Three strangers, one shared destiny... When the Last Days came, the planet of Laterre promised hope. A new life for a wealthy French family and their descendants. But five hundred years later, it's now a place where an extravagant elite class reigns supreme; where the clouds hide the stars and the poor starve in the streets; where a rebel group, long thought dead, is resurfacing. Whispers of revolution have begun—a revolution that hinges on three unlikely heroes... Chatine is a street-savvy thief who will do anything to escape the brutal Regime, including spy on Marcellus, the grandson of the most powerful man on the planet. Marcellus is an officer—and the son of an infamous traitor. In training to take command of the military, Marcellus begins to doubt the government he's vowed to serve when his father dies and leaves behind a cryptic message that only one person can read: a girl named Alouette. Alouette is living in an underground refuge, where she guards and protects the last surviving library on the planet. But a shocking murder will bring Alouette to the surface for the first time in twelve years...and plunge Laterre into chaos. All three have a role to play in a dangerous game of revolution—and together they will shape the future of a planet.

He wasn't an artist, but he was a man of paintings an art sleuth and a finder of missing treasures. Having just closed the file on a stolen Picasso art caper that had taken him to France, England, Mexico, and the Sabine Hills of Italy at Rocca Sinibalda, he is celebrating with an evening out on the town. While enjoying an aged Chateaufort du pape at a restaurant in Nice, Kellner is approached by Comtesse Marie-Claude de Hauteport, a French countess who wishes to hire him to locate a missing work of art. It's a drawing said to have been penned by Leonardo da Vinci in the late fifteenth-century and now its missing from the countess's thirteenth-century chateau. Intrigued, Kellner takes on the case and interviews friends, family, and police about the robbery during a tour that takes him to some of Europe's greatest treasures. Though Kellner has always been most successful at his job, this case leads him to more than he bargained for a discovery he couldn't have imagined in his wildest dreams.

From the authors of How Your Child is Smart, a guide to creating a natural learning environment for a child at home. Natural learning starts at home. Anyone who spends time with young children recognizes their natural intelligence and resilient passion to learn. But as they try to meet the pressures and expectations of school, natural learning diminishes. Does it have to be that way? According to teachers Dawna Markova and Anne R. Powell, absolutely not. Whether a parent or educator, Learning Unlimited helps transform the homework hassle from a nightly struggle to an engaged learning initiative that uncovers the unique gifts of your child's mind. Learning from your child's natural motivation. Filled with practical advice and compassionate support, this book is designed to honor your child's innate intelligence with family engaged learning strategies. In Learning Unlimited, veteran teachers unveil how learning from homework can also function as a joint inquiry into your child's special gifts. Designed for optimal parental involvement in education, this guide helps parents give children a competitive advantage by cultivating a life-long love of learning. Praise for Learning Unlimited "Markova and Powell . . . are proponents of the teaching movement that uses visual, audio and kinesthetic presentations to educate. Proposing that each child has his or her own personal operating system (POS) to receive, integrate and express learning, the authors suggest ways by which related classroom tactics can be applied to homework This primer is brimming with fun, unusual and practical ideas likely to benefit parents, students and educators." —Publishers Weekly
