NOBLE ELENA

Bobbi Brown Makeup Manual Routledge

According to a recent study, only 2% of women describe themselves as 'beautiful.' (Dove Global Study 'The Real Truth About Beauty: A Global Report', 2004) The media instructs women how to 'look ten years younger,' 'cover up wrinkles,' or 'get fuller, plumper lips.' And even makeup products play off women's insecurities, promising to conceal perceived flaws, define cheekbones, or make eyelashes fuller and longer. The underlying message? That there's something inherently wrong with the way women look and that they have to spend time, money, and energy keeping up with all the ways they should 'fix' themselves. In GET POSITIVELY BEAUTIFUL, makeup artist Carmindy from TLC's hit program What Not to Wear shows you how to change your mindset from negative fault-finding to a positive beauty philosophy. You learn how to find and focus on your best features and how to combat negative thoughts about your appearance. Carmindy demonstrates easy makeup techniques for eyes, brows, lashes, lips, cheeks, and skin, and how to adapt looks to different weather conditions and 'beauty moods.'

Chances are that if you have ever started on a fitness program you gave it up after a while. You probably began with great enthusiasm and maybe got some good results in the beginning. So why did you give it up? You have probably fallen victim to one (or all) of the big 3 killers of exercise programs: time, money and energy. Let's take a look at all of them to see why they kill progress and what you can do to get back in shape with a program you can maintain. Most programs just take too long. People are too busy and too stressed to devote to an hour or more every day to an exercise routine. For someone with a full time job and family responsibilities it's practically impossible to find even 10 minutes to exercise on most days, not to mention commute back and forth to the gym. The people who promote these time consuming programs make fitness their livelihood so they have all day to train. Beauty: At some point in our lives, each and every one of us will have to start learning a couple of things about makeup. Some women won't feel the need of going through the trouble of using cosmetics every morning, but most of us love this part of the day. A good makeup session will certainly make you feel more confident and it will also make you look better than ever. Check this eBook "Fitness And Beauty" and you will find answers.

Do you want to do makeup but don't know the basic makeup steps? Do you have no knowledge about makeup and want to find a standard beginner's guide? Do you want to not only do makeup but also learn about skincare before and after makeup? Do you have skin issues but still want to learn how to do makeup and address those concerns? Are you very busy and want to find a moderately-sized book that you can read anywhere, anytime you have free time? All of your desired content is in the ebook "BASIC MAKEUP GUIDE FOR BEGINNERS" (Applicable to Everyday Makeup). The book also helps you understand three extremely important things that both beginners and experienced makeup enthusiasts need to know: Firstly, do you know that to enhance your makeup, you need not only to learn makeup techniques but also to understand the cosmetic products you use? Understanding cosmetics will teach you how to use them appropriately, allowing you to not only create better makeup but also take better care of your skin. It's a sad fact that most people talk about makeup without emphasizing the importance of providing or learning proper knowledge about cosmetics in makeup and skincare. This knowledge is essential not only for beginners but also for those who are already familiar with makeup techniques. Equipping yourself with this knowledge will make us all more confident and knowledgeable. Number 2: Makeup helps us look better, not just from the beauty that makeup creates but also from the health of our skin. Therefore, in this book, Mamachan will provide ways to take care of your skin before and after makeup, how to address skin issues you may be facing, and how to properly clean your makeup tools to protect our skin before and after applying makeup. Number 3: Understanding yourself is crucial in makeup. What works for one person may not work for you. Simply put, everyone has a different face, different vibes, and different facial features. Understanding yourself will help you come up with style solutions that suit your preferences. In this handbook, you will find suggestions to help you make assessments about yourself and aim for a makeup style that suits you. Remember, you are always at your most beautiful when you are yourself!

There are quite a number of women that have never had the art of makeup application handed down to them by their mother or have received the wrong information on how to apply it. The key to having a fantastic look when using makeup is not to make it too gaudy. This is what you can learn by reading "The Makeup Guide: How To Enhance Natural Beauty." This book highlights each sort of makeup application that can be done (the eyes, the lips etc.) and explains the best ways that the application can be done. The book also highlights the list of tools that can be bought for use in makeup application. The main aim that that author has with this text is to highlight the various methods that can be used to enhance natural beauty, the various shades and colors can be used to bring out the best features in the face and hide those troublesome blemishes.
