Behold, the second edition of this essential bucket list guide awaits you. Whether it's strolling the Stone Arch Bridge in Minneapolis, sipping a drink on Frost's patio in St. Paul on a warm summer night, or biking to Stillwater for lunch on the St. Croix River, we've got you covered. We're ready to introduce you to outdoor activities that will let you declare victory over the harsh Minnesota winters. But there are also plenty of things to do indoors when Jack Frost truly has it in for you. The hearty Minnesotan will know it's a fool's errand to let weather dictate life's pleasures, and one hundred activities for all seasons await you. Two truly is better than one, and the Twin Cities are waiting to be explored. Enjoy some pro tips too, to enhance your adventures.

The second edition of this best-selling Python book (over 500,000 copies sold!) uses Python 3 to teach even the technically uninclined how to write programs that do in minutes what would take hours to do by hand. There is no prior programming experience required and the book is loved by liberal arts majors and geeks alike. If you've ever spent hours renaming files or updating hundreds of spreadsheet cells, you know how tedious tasks like these can be. But what if you could have your computer do them for you? In this fully revised second edition of the best-selling classic Automate the Boring Stuff with Python, you'll learn how to use Python to write programs that do in minutes what would take you hours to do by hand--no prior programming experience required. You'll learn the basics of Python and explore Python's rich library of modules for performing specific tasks, like scraping data off websites, reading PDF and Word documents, and automating clicking and typing tasks. The second edition of this international fan favorite includes a brand-new chapter on input validation, as well as tutorials on automating Gmail and Google Sheets, plus tips on automatically updating CSV files. You'll learn how to create programs that effortlessly perform useful feats of automation to: • Search for text in a file or across multiple files • Create, update, move, and rename files and folders • Search the Web and download online content • Update and format data in Excel spreadsheets of any size • Split, merge, watermark, and encrypt PDFs • Send email responses and text notifications • Fill out online forms Step-by-step instructions walk you through each program, and updated practice projects at the end of each chapter challenge you to improve those programs and use your newfound skills to automate similar tasks. Don't spend your time doing work a well-trained monkey could do. Even if you've never written a line of code, you can make your computer do the grunt work. Learn how in Automate the Boring Stuff with Python, 2nd Edition.

You Die No Starch Press

A unique, inside look at American childhood through the conversations between Highlights magazine and its young readers and a call to grown-ups to make time to actively listen to the children in their lives. Every year, tens of thousands of children write to Highlights magazine, sharing their hopes and dreams, worries and concerns, as if they were writing to a trusted friend. From the beginning, the editors at Highlights have answered every child individually. Longtime editor in chief Christine French Cully has curated a collection of this remarkable correspondence (letters, emails, drawings, and poems) in Dear Highlights--revealing an intimate and inspiring 75-year conversation between America's children and its leading children's magazine. From the timeless, everyday concerns of friendship, family, and school, to the deeper issues of identity, sexuality, divorce, and grief, here is a unique time capsule of American childhood in the voices--and the very handwriting--of children themselves. The book captures a child's-eye view of some of the most important events of the past

75 years: the COVID-19 pandemic, 9/11, the Challenger Disaster, and the assassination of John F. Kennedy. Cully's insightful narrative becomes a call to action for adults to lean in and listen to children, to make sure our kids know that they matter and what they think matters, and to assure them that they have the power to become people who change the world. By turns funny, heartbreaking, moving, and enlightening, Dear Highlights will cause readers to reflect, to listen, and to embrace the children in their lives. From the foreword by nationally syndicated columnist Amy Dickinson: "In times of great stress or trouble, Mr. Rogers advised children: 'Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.' That's exactly what children writing to 'Dear Highlights' find when they put pen to paper: helpers whose open-minded trust and kindness surely has made our world a better place."

Are you an adventurer asking what to do in bangkok? Somebody who is looking for extreme, unusual and crazy things to do in this city? Or do you know bangkok so well, that you're looking for new, unknown attractions? I have written a bangkok travel guide with 18 crazy things to do in bangkok. Most of these attractions are completely off the beaten track, far away from the main tourism. In this book you will find informations about abandoned buildings and airplanes, spooky museums, crazy markets, unusual restaurants and much more. Doing these things will make your stay in bangkok unforgettable, and you will definitely have something to talk about at home! The guide for people who want to live cheap and experience exciting things This city guide introduces amazing places to see in bangkok. It's a city full of surprises where you can have great adventures and unforgettable experiences at a very low price, or even for free! The ebook provides useful informations about these exciting things to do in bangkok. Some of them are dangerous, illegal and on your own risk. Explore abandoned buildings Bangkok has a lot of abandoned buildings due to the financial crash in 1997. Skyscrapers, malls and other buildings just couldn't be finished anymore. Now they are just ghost towers, spooky places. In the ebook I introduce such buildings and describe how to access them. Furthermore there is a chapter about an abandoned airplane in bangkok's suburb. Amazing places to explore! Extraordinary and unusual restaurants In bangkok there are so many crazy restaurants where the food even fades into the background sometimes! In the ebook I write about a complete dark restaurant, a café full of cats, a robot restaurant, a condom restaurant (yes, you heard it right!), a restaurant in central bangkok where you can catch your own seafood, places to eat insects and scorpions in bangkok and the second largest restaurant in the world! After reading you will definitely know what to do in bangkok when you become hungry! Cheap hostels, crazy markets, scary museums and much more! A train that drives directly through a market, so close that the groceries disappear under the train? A forensic museum with real prenatal cadavers preserved in glass boxes? A hostel for less than 3 dollars per night? That's what you can find in bangkok!
