Many people know Carroll Roberson as the smooth, plaintive Southern gospel singer and evangelist from Mississippi, but few people know that he has travelled many times to the Holy Land, and is very knowledgeable about the geography, history, and customs of that area. In 'The Christ', he brings all of that vast knowledge to the table as he tells the life of Jesus, event by event, from the Old Testament prophecies to the purpose and meaning of the acts of Christ for us today. This is a rich and satisfying account of the life of Christ that proves that He was more than a man. Bible teachers and laymen alike will gain much from the plainspoken writing of this fantastic book. Features: Carroll Roberson is a very popular Southern Gospel singer, having had many hit songs and selling thousands of albums; He will be promoting the book on his television program and in his evangelistic appearances; The events in the life of Christ, from His birth to His ascension are covered in detail, explaining the prophecies from the Old Testament, the historical background of the event, and its meaning for us today; Each topic is concise and covered in just a few pages; This book can be used as a reference book, a devotional, family-time book, or simply as a wonderful, leisurely reading book; Fully referenced.

When God speaks his people listen...and are transformed.

Nothing speaks so powerfully into a life as God's inspired Scriptures, made personal and life-changing by his Holy Spirit. To hear God's voice, we must begin with his Word. The Wesley Bible Studies series provides a thoughtful and powerful thirteen-week survey of key Scriptures, combining accessible commentary from contemporary teachers with integrated highlights from the hymns, life experiences, and complete writings of John and Charles Wesley. And for each week, creative and engaging questions likewise foster deeper fellowship and growth. The Wesley Bible Studies series is a powerful tool that God's Spirit can use to reveal his truth in you - to form in you a deeper holiness of heart and life.

Grounded in primary source research, this boldly revisionist book examines the doctrine of salvation in Oneness Pentecostalism (United Pentecostal Church) from its origins through its several developmental stages. The gradual rise of a literal interpretation of Acts 2.38 eliminated a tradition of doctrinal diversity within Oneness thought which regarded salvation as occurring at repentance prior to water and Spirit baptism. With this development a main link to the wider stream of evangelical Christianity was severed. The "water and Spirit" theology resulted in a form of Christianity which does not necessarily require the cross in any meaningful sense for salvation. This study recovers the lost theological tradition associated with important figures such as Howard A. Goss, A.D. Gurley, W.M. Greer, C.H. Tadon, Wynn T. Stairs, Earl Jacques, E.P. Wickens, John Paterson and the Pentecostal Church, Incorporated. Combining traditional historical methodology and theological research with the principles of a broadly based oral history, this study argues for a theological diversity within the history of Oneness Pentecostalism and in so doing bridges an important gap in the history and theology of the United Pentecostal Church.

David. Shepherd boy with slingshot, brave warrior, poet-musician, deceitful adulterer, repentant sinner, beloved king, "a man after God's own heart." David faced some desperate circumstances and some tough choices. So do you, day by day. In this book Rebecca Manley Pippert shows how you, like David, can choose the good, find hope and grow to be one who has a heart for God.

Dr. George Washington Sheafor was a Baptist evangelist and pastor who lived during the years that the United States was growing, the population was moving westward, and new territories and states were being added. His teaching and preaching ministry spanned seventy-six years, beginning in 1892 through his death at age 96 in 1968. His pioneer ministry began in Arizona while it was still a territory. As a young man he worked on a ranch taming wild horses off the range and preached to some of the ranch hands with whom he worked. He attended Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois, and was mentored by Dwight L. Moody, the great evangelist of his day. He also studied the life and teachings of Andrew Murray and patterned his life after this great English teacher and preacher. He began preaching revival meetings in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. During his pastoral ministry, he served in Comanche and Brownwood, Texas; Lawton, Oklahoma; and in Lancaster, Texas. Dr. Sheafor's pastoral ministry changed in 1941 when he became a Bible teacher at the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas. His name is synonymous with the teaching of Bible prophecy. In all of his teaching and preaching, Dr. Sheafor majored on the wonderful promises that God has given to every born-again believer. He presented the joy and the glory to be experienced by every believer in the Rapture, the Second Coming of Jesus, and the New Heaven and New Earth. His wealth of knowledge concerning prophecy was inimitable and he was loved and admired by all who heard him speak, including many of the professors at Dallas Theological Seminary and Dr. W.A. Criswell, pastor of First Baptist Church, Dallas for all of the twenty-three years that Dr. Sheafor taught the class that now bears his name.

What makes an ordinary man, husband, coach, or restaurant owner suddenly wake up one morning and wonder about God.

David Stevens was just a regular guy making a living and providing for his wife and family and who loved to spend his weekends with friends having drinks, dancing, and sleeping in on Sunday morning. Dave figured he had plenty of time left to get things right, until the night he had the dream that made him realize that his life could end at any moment before he got things right with God. Dave's search brought him to the realization that his life was not about Dave, but it was about God. Dave discovered that God had not just a plan for him but a calling on Dave's life to go and tell people about the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Dave went from just an ordinary man to an extraordinary man of God who preaches and teaches about the salvation we can all receive through Jesus Christ. Through the incredible teachings of Christ in the Bible and the testimonies of other godly men, Dave's life was transformed from a man centered on what the world said was acceptable to a man who desired on what God said was acceptable. He met men and women whose lives had been changed because of their interaction with Christ through dreams, through life experiences, or through the revelation of Christ. Pastor Dave, as he is now known, shares his journey of coming to Christ through his own experience of meeting the Savior. As he was mentored by other men of God, Pastor Dave began to see the urgent need to share the love, mercy, and grace of surrendering one's life to Christ and sharing that message with his friends and family and finally to others. —Minister Bonetta J. Hutson

Smith Wigglesworth on God's Power InterVarsity Press

An encounter with Smith Wigglesworth was an unforgettable experience. This seems to be the universal reaction of all who knew him or heard him speak. Wigglesworth was a simple man, a former plumber, who was used in an extraordinary way by our extraordinary God. During his forty years of ministry, thousands of people came to salvation, received the baptism in the Holy Spirit, and were miraculously healed. These miracles included the restoration of hearing and sight, the creative formation of missing limbs, the disappearance of cancerous growths, the recovery of mental wholeness by the violently insane, and the raising of several people from the dead. The miracle-working power of his ministry is captured in this classic collection of Wigglesworth's sermons and Bible studies. Despite the passing years, they still retain the spontaneous supernatural anointing that would cause Wigglesworth to loudly proclaim his favorite phrase: "Only believe!"

Making Sense of the Bible [Leader Guide] Createspace Independent Publishing Platform

Have you ever been reading the Bible and came to a verse or passage of Scripture that you did not understand, and therefore consulted various commentators, only to find out that each commentator gave a different interpretation of that verse or passage of Scripture? Do you recall being left in a state of confusion? This little book is designed to dispel such confusion. This little book is very helpful to Christians and Bible teachers in general. This little book is divided into three basic parts: The Danger of Tampering with the "Word of God" Private Interpretation Scriptural Interpretation I received Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior on Sunday, June 1, 1969. That same day, the indwelling Holy Spirit instilled in my heart to search and to study the entire Bible, and, as I learned it, to help other brother and sisters in Christ to learn it also. This is exactly what I have been endeavoring to do, day-in and day-out, year-in and year-out, until this present time. After being saved, I began to serve the Lord as a member of St. Peter Primitive Baptist Church of Alcoa, Tennessee. I served as a Sunday School teacher for grade school children. In 1974 and 1975, at Twelfth Avenue Baptist Church in Columbus, Ohio, I served as Sunday School Teacher of the adolescent class. Later, in May of 1981, I was appointed Sunday School teacher of the adult class at Pilgrim's Home Primitive Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas. I am presently serving as adult class Sunday School teacher at Greater Tabernacle Baptist Church in Middlesborough, Kentucky.
