Christmas & Holiday Trivia - Volume 1 Villard

I created my Interesting Answers website a few years back as a place to concisely answer those bizarre and random questions that pop into your head throughout the day that aren't important enough to write down and research later. For example: -Is there an Old Zealand? -How many people live in Antarctica? -Do insects get fat? -How many songs did Elvis Presley record? -Was Colonel Sanders a real military colonel? -Why can't I tickle myself? -Who is General Tso and why is chicken named after him?and over 100 other interesting questions and answers! The answers to these fun questions and random trivia is what makes up this book. I'm a very curious person and strange random questions like these constantly pop into my head while I'm driving, showering, etc. Since they weren't questions that affect my life, I never would get the answers to them. One day, I finally decided to start making a note of these strange random questions and document my findings on Interesting Answers. The website and this book are safe for all ages! I got annoyed with the answers I found on other websites because they would spend so much time not answering the question just to increase the amount of time people spend on their web page. I took a different approach. My entire goal was to answer the question as concisely as possible and give just a little bit of background information for context purposes but not get too wordy. If you want long-winded answers, this is not the book for you. If you want a book that gets to the point while still providing context and background information, then this IS the book for you. If you are a trivia buff, this is the book for you! If you have a friend that is a trivia buff, this book would make a great gift! If you want an interesting coffee table or bathroom reader, this is the book for you! :) I updated my site for a few years and now have nearly 200 questions. This book will be the first volume. If this book sells enough, I will put together a second volume in the coming months. Hopefully, you have as much fun reading the answers to these bizarre questions as I did discovering them.

Ken Jennings's Trivia Almanac is the ingeniously organized book where, for a change, the all-time Jeopardy! champ gets to ask the questions—and where every day of the year will give you the chance to test your trivia mettle. For example—February 21: In 1912, on this day, Teddy Roosevelt coined the political phrase "hat in the ring," so Ken Jennings fires off a series of "ring" questions. What two NFL quarterbacks have four Super Bowl rings each?* What rings are divided by the Cassini Division? Also on this date, in 1981, the "goth" music scene was born in London, so here's a quiz on black-clad icons like Darth Vader, Johnny Cash, and Zorro. Do you know the secret identities of Ivanhoe's Black Knight or Men in Black's Agent M*? In this ultimate book for trivia buffs and other assorted know-it-alls, the 365 entries feature "This Day in History" factoids, trivia quizzes, and questions categorized by Jennings as "Easy," "Hard," and "Yeah, Good Luck." Topics cover every subject under the sun, from paleontology to mixology, sports feats to Bach suites, medieval popes to daytime soaps. This addictive gathering of facts, oddities, devilishly clever quizzes, and other flights of fancy will make each day a fun and intriguing new challenge.

100 hilarious essays, based on blindingly obvious questions, from the creators of Geeks Who Drink—led by six-time Jeopardy! champion, Christopher D. Short. The best trivia questions are usually the ones that are right on the tip of your tongue—so obvious that you may not know the answer offhand, but you should. In Duh, America's foremost masters of pub quiz, Geeks Who Drink, will take trivia lovers on a voyage through 100 of our face-palming questions. Along the way, we'll explore the blind hills and corners that make random knowledge so much fun. In hilarious, informative, bite-size essays, we'll explore such not-really-mysteries as: -How many stars are on the Texas state flag? -Odlaw is the nemesis of what kid book character? -What's the last word in the King James Bible? Even if you already know the "what"—and you might not!—we'll fill in the "why." And the when, where, and how. By the end you may feel dumber, but you'll be smarter. We almost guarantee it! By the way, that would be one (lone) star, Waldo, and "Amen." Duh!

My name is Amber Reynolds. There are three things you should know about me: 1. I'm in a coma. 2. My husband doesn't love me anymore. 3. Sometimes I lie. Amber wakes up in a hospital. She can't move. She can't speak. She can't open her eyes. She can hear everyone around her, but they have no idea. Amber doesn't remember what happened, but she has a suspicion her husband had something to do with it. Alternating between her paralyzed present, the week before her accident, and a series of childhood diaries from twenty years ago, this brilliant psychological thriller asks: Is something really a lie if you believe it's the truth?

Nick's plan: dodge his grandmother's matchmaking attempts by claiming Eve is his date for Christmas. He probably should have asked Eve first. Although Nick Klassen is grateful when Eve rides to his rescue after he breaks down outside of December, Manitoba, he can't run fast enough when his meddling grandmother tries to set him up with the pretty tow-truck driver. Then he gets an idea. Between juggling extra hours at work and a never-ending Christmas to-do list, Eve LeBlanc doesn't have time for a new man in her life. But ever since she picked Nick up on the side of the road, she's been running into him everywhere. His flirtations started innocently enough but when his grandmother invites "his girlfriend" to the family's Christmas dinner, Nick realizes if he wants his fake relationship with Eve to turn into the real thing, he must come clean. But once she learns of his deception, Nick will need Santa's help to ensure a holiday happily-ever-after. The North Pole Unlimited Christmas romance series: 1. Decker & Joy 2. Hollis & Ivy 3. In an uplifting new series that will make your heart smile, award-winning author Amy Lillard's Widows' Club novels feature a group of women who look out for one another like sisters, set in a close-knit Missouri Amish community where matchmaking is a joyful tradition, especially when love, faith-and a little imagination-unite . . . While most women her age are searching for husbands, Astrid Kauffman has chosen a different path-writing romance novels and donating her profits to her beloved Amish community. But when Astrid struggles with writer's block, she agrees to play matchmaker for Imogene Yoder, a widowed mother of rambunctious twin boys. Perhaps the diversion-and the entree it gives Astrid to the stories among the Widows' Club-will spark her creativity . . . Fortunately, Astrid has just the match for Imogene: a widower she believes is the finest, most handsome man in town. In fact, Astrid realizes he's perfect . . . for herself! Soon, the plot thickens as Imogene questions what kind of marriage she really wants, and Astrid wonders what kind of matchmaker falls for someone else's match. But by letting faith guide the way, all involved may discover true love has written a far better next chapter than any of them expected . . .
