Commencement Exercises, 1916, Disputanta High School Forgotten Books
 Excerpt from Commencement Exercises, New Professors, Address of John Finley, LL. D., New York I wondered why the Cambridge mother let this portrait of the handsome, dreamful young man, who became in age the bitter satirist of heavy figure, hang on her college walls, to mock her classical disciplines and her seemingly unpractical courses, her cloistered ways, -and her worship of the past. Many a New World university might covet his presence to countenance its practicality, its modernity, its academic freedom, its adventurous scholarship, and its fearlessness of mind. But to - day the youthful portrait is hanging on a hall almost deserted. The students of courses which he cal and atrophying have gone forth to prove the valor of their cloistered and unpractical learning. Commencement Exercises, Scripts and General Information Thomas Nelson
 No song in recent memory has captured the imagination of American youth as has GRADUATION (FRIENDS FOREVER) by pop star Vitamin C. Not only a success on the record charts, the hundreds of requests from high schools across the country asking for permission to play the song at commencement exercises are evidence of the incredible and enduring popularity of this song. This beautiful gift book contains the lyrics to GRADUATION (FRIENDS FOREVER) as well as pages on which students can have their friends sign as a special memory book.
