The opening lines and chapters of Genesis teach us fundamental truths about God. We watch Him bring light after darkness, order after chaos, and rest after toil--all through the power of His Word. Over 10 sessions of verse-by-verse Bible study, dive into the first 11 chapters of Genesis through this Bible study by following three critical stages of understanding: comprehension, interpretation, and application. Revisit familiar stories and historical figures, challenge your basic knowledge, and discover deeper meanings in the text. As God reveals Himself through Scripture, we can only begin to understand ourselves when we first glimpse the character, attributes, and promises of our Creator. God of Creation by Jen Wilkin is a Genesis Bible study that takes an in-depth look at chapters 1-11 and includes DVDs providing video teaching, downloadable helps for leaders, and one women's Bible study book. Jen Wilkin's leader kits are ideal for group Bible studies in and outside of the church, following the teachings of the Christian Bible. Along with her written teachings, this Leader kit also provides learnings and readings via Jen Wilkin's trusted voice as she leads you through the Bible study. Features □Leader helps to guide questions and discussions within small groups □Personal study segments with homework to complete between 10 weeks of group sessions □Interactive teaching videos, approximately 30-40 minutes per session □WordSearch digital library and extra leader resources □Verse-by-verse study for comprehension and application Benefits □Discover how every story in the Bible points to Christ. □Learn to view the lives of biblical figures in the larger context of Scripture. □Challenge your basic understanding of familiar stories. □Gain knowledge of who God is as He has revealed Himself through Scripture. Notes, Critical and Practical, on the Book of Genesis Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Charles Trumbull takes us through each and every passage of the Book of Genesis, his detailed narration shedding light upon the meaning and wisdom of the Bible verse. Before embarking on his detailed commentary, the author briefly discusses the importance of waking up each morning and absorbing some element of Biblical truth. This 'morning watch' is what the title refers to - the Christians who begin their days with a reading, that their schedule be informed by the truth of scripture.

Trumbull then considers each and every passage of Genesis, in sequence, with paragraphs of thoughtful analysis. The incisive and spiritually aware explanations allow readers a superb understanding of Genesis. The author was best-known as editor of The Sunday School Times, a weekly publication which had a readership exceeding 100,000 Christians in 1900. An able educator and dispenser of spiritual knowledge, it was through the efforts of men like Trumbull that the everyday Christian became knowledgeable of the many lessons found in scripture.

Sometimes we can know a story so well that we tend to focus on events rather than on the people around whom those events occur. While the events are important, of course, we cannot know their full importance if we do not understand those involved. In The Pursuit of Man: A Fun Journey through God's Word, Revealing the Evidence of God's Pursuit of Us, author Matthew Rings explores the lives of people in the book of Genesis. He offers ways to block out memories of what happens next and read each chapter of Genesis with a fresh set of eyes. This allows for a closer focus on how God moves in his people's lives. Those who may have once been thought of as characters can become real people with real lives. The Bible is God's story of how he loves us and how he is intimately involved in our lives. The Pursuit of Man seeks to help us apply God's Word to our lives. Savor the atmosphere, lives, culture, customs, and geography of God's people of Genesis. Watch and see how God's plan of redemption explodes off the pages as God pursues his people.

Volume 3 covers Genesis chapter 41 to the end and the first 11 chapters of the book of Exodus. Twenty stories pick up the thread of Joseph in Egypt, describe Pharaoh's palace, and depict the plight of the Hebrew people as Egyptian slaves. God sends ten plagues as Moses begs for their release.

This book is for Adult Readers. It's a Science Fiction Thriller. It's a story about cloning. The main character is Mr. Sandman and he has a propensity for being very evil. He was cloned from an old gunfighter, and he seems to continue that trait. There's one thing he doesn't understand-his terrible and fantastic night-terrors. Raised by the "military", and a bad childhood, he soon learns well in defending himself; and has the eyes of an eagle when shooting guns. After his 18th birthday, they let him go on his own. He strives to keep himself alive. One day, he meets a young lady, and for the first time in his life, he feels love, and feels love back. One night, he seeks out a man to find what he's all about. Little does he know-this man is going to change his life. Mr. Sandman becomes a nonhuman. He has been changed into someone who is superior to our race, and a new species. As much as we wish, we dare not tell you any more, or it shall ruin this book for you. Could something like this really happen? Or could it be happening now?

This book presents in as clear a way as possible the New Testament material dealing with women and their roles in the context of the movement Jesus began. Dr Witherington begins by illustrating the roles of women in Judaism, in the Hellenistic world, and in the Roman Empire. She goes on to show how Jesus broke significantly with convention in the way he viewed women and their roles, offering as he did a wholly new conception of the legitimate rights of women in society. An analysis follows of the apostle Paul's attitude toward women, which shows how he agreed with and differed from the ideas of his contemporaries. The concluding chapters discuss the evangelists, whose selection and presentation of material with respect to women casts much light on the early Church's understanding of women and their roles. This comprehensive survey, which avoids slanting its material to serve a modern patriarchal or feminist bias, comes to the exciting conclusion that we can see in the New Testament an attempt to reform the patriarchal orientation of the day.

The creation story stands as one of the most famous and familiar in Scripture. But, says best-selling author Robert Farrar Capon, most of us misconstrue it. The reason? We have fallen into the habit of reading Genesis the way we read all of Scripture - as a manual of religious instructions. To break this (bad) habit, Capon here offers a whimsical yet wonderfully fruitful approach - watching the Bible as a historical movie whose director is God. Though Capon does have fun with this concept, he's very serious about its liberating effects. "When you watch a movie," he says, "you never ask questions about whether the events depicted actually happened. Instead, you accept the history the director shows you on the screen." And, as Capon points out, we typically suspend judgment of a film until we've seen all of it, letting later scenes inform and enrich earlier ones. That, he says, is exactly how we need to see Genesis - as just the beginning of the whole movie of Scripture. Using this novel approach in "Genesis, the Movie," Capon develops a commentary of theological scope and depth on the first three chapters of Genesis. He gives every verse as it appears in the Hebrew, the Septuagint, and the Vulgate, as well as in the KJV, RSV, and NRSV versions of the Bible. Making extensive use of Augustine's commentary on Genesis in his "Confessions" and "De Genesi ad Litteram," Capon also shows the interpretive freedom with which the church's fathers and mothers approached Scripture. This book is as much Capon the charming writer-teacher as it is Capon the scholar, characterized as it is by the conversational, entertaining style for which Capon is so well known. Enriched by Capon's signature wit, imaginative wisdom, and broad-ranging engagement of saints, poets, and religious thinkers across the centuries, "Genesis, the Movie" presents a remarkable new look at Scripture that will delight and challenge its many readers.

A Brief Survey of the Bible Study Guide Martin Texada

The Bible is the inspired Word of God, and over the centuries it has changed people's lives and led them to God. Yet sometimes it can be a difficult book to understand. The culture in which the Bible was written is so different from our own that at times we struggle to understand what it means or how it is relevant to our modern lives. In this 14-session video Bible study (DVD/digital sold separately), Bible professors John Walton and Mark Strauss give you the background you need to successfully understand even the difficult parts of the Word of God. They provide an overview of the Bible's key themes, show what the teachings meant to the people at the time, and explain how those teachings apply to your life today. By the end, you will have a greater understanding of Scripture, know how all the books work together, and understand what God has done to make a way for you to come to him. This study guide includes: Group discussion questions and notes to help you get the most out of the fourteen video sessions in A Brief Study of the Bible Video Study An overview of each book of the Bible and a daily reading plan Between-sessions Scripture passages, reading tips, and key stories to help you dig into the content Additional facts to help you understand the situations behind the story Sessions include: Introduction Genesis—Exodus Leviticus—Deuteronomy Joshua—1 Samuel 2 Samuel—2 Kings 1 Chronicles—Nehemiah Esther—Psalm 90 Psalm 91—Song of Songs Isaiah—Lamentations Ezekiel—Malachi Matthew Mark—Acts 8 Acts 9—Philemon Hebrews—Revelation Designed for use with A Brief Survey of the Bible Video Study (sold separately).

Dear Ones, There are many revelations that flow out of the Hebrew Text and onto the pages of Dr. Akiva Gamliel's book, Gematria And Mysticism In GENESIS. The reader will be introduced to truths not discussed among the religions of the world. I invite you to watch this short video of Dr. Akiva Gamliel Belk discussing Gematria. <https://www.facebook.com/photo.php?v=10201804737095628>

The cost of this book is a small investment for what the reader will learn. The Gematria in my husband's book is deep and intense, inspiring and extremely interesting. Dr. Akiva Gamliel has provided a Gematria Chart in the beginning of the book plus a glossary in the back to assist those who are not acquainted with Gematria / Biblical numbers. Gematria And Mysticism In GENESIS is more than just a book. It's an exploration of Biblical truths. The reader will not want to put Dr. Akiva Gamliel book down. In addition Dr. Akiva Gamliel shares additional information on B'nai Noach Torah Institute's learning Blog specifically about this book. Readers are invited to join in with comments and questions. Hebrew in the Bible unveils answers to many mysteries. The entire Bible is founded upon Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. The truths that flow out of these five books of the Bible and into other Books of the Bible is amazing. The conundrum is different than within the rest of the Bible. Why? There is a system of Hebrew Letters which each have a numerical value that have the power to reveal many new things to us. The numerical values can reveal many interesting and mystifying relationships within the Hebrew Letters, Words, Phrases etc. of the First Five Books. Over decades of study and research Dr. Akiva Gamliel has recorded many signs written in this book. He has gathered, compiled and organized years of discovery into this mystical book for us to learn, enjoy and share. Many years can pass between one discovery to another which forms a bridge between two discoveries. Revelations are the product of many bridges. Enclosed in this book are some of these special relationships. There is a special sweetness in sharing a Torah Gematria / Sign during a wonderful warm Friday evening Shabbat meal or on another occasion. Genesis is a fantastic book of the Bible. It is a book of foundations, of beginnings. Join me in the first of three bible studies journeying through the book of Genesis, in an inductive style. Six prompts will be given each week at we complete each chapter...Survey the Ground: Open in prayer and do a quick read...reading wide. Read in your favorite version of the Bible. Planting the Seed: Digging deep and looking at the text with the inductive style questions of the 5 W's and H (Who, What, Where, When, Why and How), some cross-references and possible word study. This method helps you to learn to think and study God's Word inductively. You will need to read the text several times, but it's an amazing tool! Get digging! Ponder: A time to think, ponder and consider what you are learning! No need to answer. Just think. Watering the Soil: The water of prayer through the ministry of the Word and Spirit. Pray, journal or simply be still with the Lord. Worship the One Who Causes the Growth: Consider a song selection and spend a little time in worship. Use the one suggested or pick your own but spend some time in worship. Watch & See: An application, action point to work into our lives. To watch and see what the Lord does! The Soil will cover Genesis 1-11, in 7-weeks. The Seed will cover Genesis 12-22 and The Vine will finish the book. Every study will be walking through the historical accounts but also focusing on Christ during Creation, the Fall, and the ultimate Seed of Promise as the house of Abraham is built. Seeing Christ in the Old Testament is an amazing and incredibly important aspect in our understanding of both the Old and New Testament.

LIFE IN THIS UNIVERSE Many people try to explain why life exists here on Earth. But there's an even a deeper question that needs to be addressed: Why does life exist throughout our universe? Our universe is huge in size and has been around for 14 billion years. Other Earth-like planets with life are probably scattered all over the universe. If life thrives here on Earth, then life should thrive on other habitable planets. Science suggests that life throughout this universe appears to be very likely. There are many requirements for life to exist on another planet. But all of these requirements are common when considering how many stars there are in the entire universe. And the elements that produce life are also common throughout the universe. There has to be other Earth-like planets with life. The universe has about 100 billion galaxies that each have 100 billion stars or more. There are other stars to account for equaling about 100,000,000,000,000,000,000 total stars in our known universe. No one knows how much life is really out there. But there could be millions or billions of Earth-like planets in our universe right now. A UNIVERSE FULL OF LIFE If there's 1 Earth-like planet per 20 galaxies, that would equal 5 billion habitable planets right now. That's 1 habitable planet per 2 trillion stars. So this estimate of 5 billion Earth-like planets for the entire universe is definitely possible. There are no exact percentages for these requirements so this is just a rough estimate. Scientists agree with the possibility of billions or trillions of habitable Earth-like planets in our universe. It's also known that just 15 million years after the big bang, the whole universe could've been one large habitable zone as it cooled down to a livable temperature. During this period of time, microscopic life could've arisen while the entire universe was at room temperature. (Harvard University astronomer Avi Loeb) So there could've been microscopic life forms just 15 million years after the Big Bang. Therefore life could've arisen during the following 14 billion years. It's possible that plenty of life could've existed in the universe's past. (Space.com, Big Bang Theory: 5 Weird Facts About Seeing the Universe's Birth) Scientists now estimate that there are about 8 billion habitable planets in our galaxy alone. Although only a small percentage of these planets would have the other requirements for life to exist. But there are still 99,999,999,999 other galaxies in the universe to consider. Science suggests that there could be billions of Earth-like planets in our universe right now, not counting the past or future. Life probably existed somewhere else in the past, and it's likely that other Earth-like planets will form in the future. Time must be added to the equation and greatly increases the chances for life in this universe. This is a strong piece of evidence that a Creator is responsible for life throughout this universe. It can't just be a fluke of nature or the result of endless coincidences. It seems to be the result of an intentional creation. These billions of Earth-like planets make our universe seem like a deliberate creation. How can someone not draw this conclusion with so many habitable solar systems just like ours? It's not like there's just a few, there's millions of Earth-like planets with life at the very least. And that's just considering the present time right now. COINCIDENCE If you stumbled upon a parking lot full of millions of cars, would you assume that they all exist by random coincidences? Did these complex parts just happened to form on their own? Did the batteries, fluids, pistons, timing chains, transmissions, wheels, brake parts, steering wheels, and so on all just happen to exist by mere chance? That doesn't seem possible. And a car is nowhere near as complicated as life forms are.
