Fully updated for the OMB Uniform Guidance for federal awards. The new Uniform Guidance requirements have introduced extensive revisions to single audit engagements that affect the entire audit process, from the engagement letter to reporting on the single audit. Changes have also been made to federal agency requirements, administrative requirements, cost principles to which federal awards are subject, and more. Navigating these changes will require vigilance throughout the entire process in order to ensure that your engagements are compliant. This guide will assist you with understanding these significant revisions and correctly applying them in your single audit engagements. It also provides nonfederal entities receiving federal awards with important information on implementing the Uniform Guidance. Key Benefits: Develop an understanding of generally accepted government auditing standards (GAGAS), including the requirements related to auditor independence Gain an understanding of the requirements for performing a Uniform Guidance compliance audit, including major program determination Understand the unique audit areas related to a compliance audit of federal awards, including internal control over compliance for major programs Review illustrative auditor reports for both the financial statement audit performed under GAGAS and the compliance audit performed under the Uniform Guidance Understand the transition considerations that may be encountered in the Uniform Guidance compliance audit Who Will Benefit? Auditors performing Uniform Guidance compliance audits and management of entities that receive federal awards.

Management Letter

This letter discusses the results of the Auditor of Public Accounts audit of the Nebraska Department of Administrative Services. The audit found that the state's accounting system, EnterpriseOne Business, does not have a backup system or the proper disaster recovery hardware, software, processes, and procedures in place to ensure information can be preserved and replicated in real time.

Arizona State Parks Board

Audits provide essential accountability and transparency over government programs. Given the current challenges facing governments and their programs, the oversight provided through auditing is more critical than ever. Government auditing provides the objective analysis and information needed to make the decisions necessary to help create a better future. The professional standards presented in this 2018 revision of Government Auditing Standards (known as the Yellow Book) provide a framework for performing high-quality audit work with competence, integrity, objectivity, and independence to provide accountability and to help improve government operations and services. These standards, commonly referred to as generally accepted government auditing standards (GAGAS), provide the foundation for government auditors to lead by example in the areas of independence, transparency, accountability, and quality through the audit process. This revision contains major changes from, and supersedes, the 2011 revision.
