Christians Leave the Homosexuals Alone Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

As parents of adult children, we often worry about whether our children will make good choices when they're on their own. Praying the Scriptures for Your Adult Children provides you with biblically based prayers and encouraging stories to guide you as you pray for your adult children through anything they face. Parent and author Jodie Berndt understands what it's like to release children into the world and still care deeply about them and everything they're up against in life. In Praying the Scriptures for Your Adult Children, Jodie shares prayers designed with your adult children in mind, whether they're just leaving the nest, flying well on their own, or struggling to take off at all. Jodie shares advice on navigating all aspects of adulthood with encouraging stories from experienced parents who are praying their children through real-life issues like leaving the church, struggling with health concerns, navigating broken marriages, fighting addiction, dealing with financial problems, and more. In Praying the Scriptures for Your Adult Children, Jodie addresses some of the most difficult questions that confront parents: How can I support my children when they make decisions I disagree with? Is it too late to start praying for my children? What does the Bible teach us about praying for our children? With the grace and wisdom of someone who's been there, Jodie shares the tools and encouragement you need to find the strength to keep praying, even as you doubt yourself and grieve over your children's choices. Whatever you're praying for, Praying the Scriptures for Your Adult Children will help you find confidence and peace taken straight from Scripture, guiding you to the bedrock of God's promises as you release your children to God's shepherding care. Switch On Your Brain Christian Faith Publishing, Inc. Jodie Berndt shows you how to make the Bible a book of prayers that can powerfully influence your children's lives. You'll discover how to pray specifically and expectantly for their faith, character, safety, relationships, and future. You'll gain new, biblical perspectives on God's purposes for your children. And through the encouragement of the Scriptures and true-life stories, you'll find out what a huge difference your prayers really make in the lives of those you love most. Discover How to Pray God's Will for Your Children's Lives There's no place like God's Word to turn to when you want to pray confidently and effectively for your kids. "Prayers permeated with the Word of God bring about changes in our children and keep us in touch with God's priorities. This is a wonderful resource that you will want to refer to over and over." Fern Nichols, founder and president of Moms in Touch International "If I could choose only one book to help me pray for my children, this is it! Not only has Jodie given us a rich treasure of true stories, practical prayers, and relevant Scriptures for our children, but a surprise awaits! In reading this I found my own confidence in God growing. RUN and get this book for moms and grandmoms." Susan Alexander Yates, author of How to Like the Ones You Love "I know of no one who can speak more authoritatively than Jodie Berndt on praying for your children. Every parent who wants their children to grow into godly men and women should read this book.

GOD ON ASSIGNMENT AS YOU DAVID HULSE, D.D. "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; we are spiritual beings having a human experience." -Pierre Teilhard de Chardin I realize that this book may not be for everyone at this time. However, it is necessary to challenge the sensibilities of man-made traditions, which have made the word of present truth of no effect to this generation. I invite you to listen to your own inner Christ intelligence which is able to lead you to your truth, rather than listening to the feeble attempts of dogmatic voices who are only plunging us into the depths of unanswered questions. If you are in the process of re-examining old childhood beliefs and have realized there has to be a "more excellent way," this book is for you. With this in mind, I invite you to open your minds and your hearts to this great process of incarnation, when an adventurous playful Creator chose to experience and play the game of humanity with all of its diversity. My premise is that a Creator could not create anything less than itself as that would result in pity. Creating anything greater than itself would result in admiration. Only creating that which is equal results in love! You are the creator experiencing the richness of this human journey. You are god on assignment! "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God." -Phil. 2:5-6 KJV

And He said, "What comes out of a man, that defiles a man." (Mark 7:20) It is not what goes inside of you that makes you a bad person. It is not what goes inside of you that makes people stay away from you. It is not what goes inside of you that makes people not believe and trust you. It is not what goes inside of you that makes people say you don't act like a Christian. What makes a Christian a bad child of God is what comes out of your mouth. Until we learn to "watch" our mouth, we will always say things we will regret. And there is nothing like saying the wrong thing at the wrong time to hurt those we love the most. The Bible says, "Evil communications corrupt good manners." It does not matter who you are or how strong you might think. If we don't learn to renew our minds, we will always spew out negativity. There are so many scriptures that can help us "watch" our mouth so we don't fall short of God's grace again, but that goes out of the window in time of trials and tribulation for the word's sake. Disciple James says, "If any man thinks he is a religious and does not tame his or her tongue, that man religion is in vain." Self-control is a virtue, and a lot of Christians do not have self-control; otherwise, we would never kill one another with our words daily when we know too well the Bible commanded us to build up one another up in our most holy faith. God says, "He who does not have rules over his own spirit is like a city with a broken-down wall." Too many Christians are broken down; you can see through their loneliness, depression, anger, and poverty. The lack of self-control is why some God-ordained married end up in divorce; children brought up in church end up in jail; many are kicked to the streets and living under the bridge because they can't watch their mouths. Inside the mind of an evangelist is to help many brothers and sisters that they have the key to renew their minds. Jesus says, "I gave you the key, whatever you bind here on earth is already bound in heaven, and whatever you loose here on earth is loose in heaven." I wrote this book to show that whatever you think in your heart is what will manifest itself and form your destiny. Good man, out of the treasures of his heart, brings forth good. We pray that God let the word of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in your sight. The Lord knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile. He commanded us to meditate on his word day and night that we can have good success, and whatever we do, we will prosper if we think the right thoughts. I took the last part of Philippians 4:8 and put it into practice. So when Facebook asks what is on my mind...I pray for God to show me how to use this opportunity to glorify His name. I encourage all the readers of this book to think like an evangelist! Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy--meditate on these things. (Philippians 4:8 NKJV) This is the only right way to guard our hearts because from out it are issues of life.

Lord, Keep My Mind Clean Memory Worldwide Pty Limited

Many Christians spend a lifetime trying to figure out God's will for their lives: What career should I choose? Where should I live? Whom should I marry? God has told us his will for our lives: to be "conformed to the image of His Son" (Romans 8:29). Paul explains: We are to put off the old self and put on the new self "created to be like God in true righteous and holiness" (Ephesians 4:24). We cannot become more Christ-like in our own strength, though. Paul says the key is a renewed mind: "to be made new in the attitudes of your minds" (Ephesians 4:23). We exchange our patterns of thinking with God's Word. We fill our mind with Scripture, and slowly, we are transformed. Learning to think like Jesus helps us to act like Jesus. This is where Bible memorization comes in. We need to get God's Word into our heads and into our hearts. When I feel resentful and unforgiving toward my friend who betrayed me and am tempted to end our relationship, I replace my thoughts and hurt feelings with Hebrews 13:1: "Keep on loving each other as brothers." When I start to worry about my upcoming surgery or my children's college fund, I remind myself, "We live by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7). God's Word is living, active, and powerful. Having these verses in my mind and heart helps me to choose new Christ-like behavior. Here are fifty-two short Bible verses: Memorize one verse a week. Meditate on it daily. By the end of the year, you will see the transformative power of God's Word in renewing your mind and changing your behavior. As you are increasingly conformed to the image of Jesus, you will have the privilege of reflecting his love to the world.

2017 ECPA Christian Book Award Finalist (Christian Living category) Are you getting the spiritual nourishment you need? Optimal health requires optimal nutrition. The same is true spiritually speaking. Without sufficient and regular biblical nutrition, our inner lives begin to suffer the consequences. We become shallow and selfish, more demanding and less gentle, and quick to react impatiently, rashly, and angrily. These are telltale signs of inner malnutrition. In Searching the Scriptures, respected Bible teacher Chuck Swindoll shows us how to dig deep into Scripture and uncover its profound truths for our lives. He outlines the principles of Bible study that will help you understand God's Word, apply it, and communicate it clearly to those around you. Too many people try to go it alone, without a guide, for this life and the next. Chuck explains how we can fix our own spiritual meals, then invites us to feast on nourishing truths we can discover in God's Word.

Girl, Mind Your Business: 30 Scriptures to Keep in Mind While in Business Baker Books
Abominations do exist in the Church of Jesus Christ. Maggie Charles shares some insight on how homosexuality is not the only abomination in the Bible. She wants the church to be aware of those sins that are holding up the church's spiritual advancement. She has listed a few abominations that are listed in the Bible that every Christian who is not aware of them must know, such as • A proud look • A lying tongue • Hands that shed innocent blood • A heart that devises wicked imaginations • Feet that be swift in running to mischief • A false witness that speaks lies • A sower of discord Maggie believes that it is God's divine will for a Christian to live a sin-free life. That's why He sent His only Begotten Son, Christ Jesus, to show us that it is possible. She also believes that living a sin-free life must be the goal of every Christian who wants to make it to heaven. She explains that an abomination is a sin, how God hates sin, and no sinner will inherit the kingdom of God. She's strongly convinced that we can live an abomination-free life as Christians, if we do the Word. Maggie Charles puts a lot of emphasis on how the people of God can overcome the abominations that are listed in the Bible. She explains that there is a misconception in the church that homosexuality is the only abomination that displeases God. That's not what the Bible says. She has proven that with many insightful biblical scriptures in this book. She has shown us how God can help us to get rid of those abominations that can put a stumbling block between our relationships with Him. The knowledge you will get from this book will be an eye opener. Maggie also states that Christians are losing their focus on how important it is for them to examine their own life on a daily basis by doing an auto-critic per se. She recommends us to set our spiritual priorities in order and to mind our own business, as Christians. Most importantly, she counsels us to love one another. By reading this book, you will find out where you are in your spiritual life and what to do to move forward.

Changing your Mind NavPress
Scripture clearly states that Christ, God's Spirit, is in our heart, "God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts. God has given us His Spirit in our hearts." Scripture also states, "Man believes with his heart." To be saved we must follow our Living Lord and Savior who resides in our heart. Beliefs in our mind are not faith. This book is a Bible study about heart believing versus mind beliefs. Each chapter discusses a key aspect of believing in our Living Lord and Savior in our heart. These include loving the Lord with all our heart, hearing God's voice, living grace versus law, and doing God's will. The questions at the end of each chapter are meant to have you think about your own faith in relation to heart believing versus mind beliefs. Scripture warns us about having an unbelieving heart, "Take care, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the Living God." My objective is to exhort Christians to listen to and follow our Living Lord and Savior in their heart rather than be content with beliefs in their mind.

Inside the Mind of an Evangelist Guiding Light Publishing
For Someone Else If You're Concerned. For Yourself If You've Ever Wondered. You joined your church because of its intensity for God. Like no other place, it's helped you discover the meaning of obedience. Of teachableness. Of death to self. If there's one problem, it's the confusion that sometimes comes from your own carnal thinking. But God has given you leaders who can lovingly correct a doubting, independent spirit and help you choose God's best for your life. How can you go wrong with a church like that? Easily. What you've just read actually fits the profile of many abusive churches. Twisted Scriptures reveals in depth how the Bible can be distorted in ways that rob you of the liberty Jesus died to give you. You might be shocked at what you discover. This book uncovers the subtle but powerful techniques by which, in the name of truth, controlling leaders manipulate and intimidate countless believers. It also supplies tools for overcoming persuasive, deceptive teachings and practices. Thousands of Christians have already moved from struggle to true freedom and hope through Twisted Scriptures. If you truly want to grow in everything God made you to be, you owe it to yourself to read this book.

Pray without ceasing Continue steadfastly in prayer Praying always with all perseverance and supplication for all saints Christians are commanded to pray and are promised that their prayers will be powerful and effective. Then why do so many of us fail to pray regularly and why do our prayers seem to go unanswered? In Luke chapter eleven, when the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, He gave them the pattern God requires from us when we pray. Using the Word of God, Teach us to Pray follows this pattern for you in ten daily prayer sessions. Teach us to Pray the Bible Way is not a commentary about prayer; it is prayer itself. It is our Lord's own pattern given to His disciples. Use this book to familiarize yourself with the proper pattern of Biblical prayer. To receive the most benefit for your prayer life, use the book every day, speak the scripture verses and the words of prayer as your own and, most importantly, don't give up. Prayer works and, like breathing, must be continuous to have the most benefit. May God bless you as you seek Him with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective

Over 900,000 copies sold! According to researchers, the vast majority—a whopping 75-98 percent—of the illnesses that plague us today are a direct result of our thought life. What we think about truly affects us both physically and emotionally. In fact, fear alone triggers more than 1,400 known physical and chemical responses in our bodies, activating more than thirty different hormones! Today our culture is undergoing an epidemic of toxic thoughts that, left unchecked, create ideal conditions for illnesses. Supported by current scientific and medical research, Dr. Caroline Leaf gives readers a prescription for better health and wholeness through correct thinking patterns, declaring that we are not victims of our biology. She shares with readers the "switch" in our brains that enables us to live happier, healthier, more enjoyable lives where we achieve our goals, maintain our weight, and even become more intelligent. She shows us how to choose life, get our minds under control, and reap the benefits of a detoxed thought life.

This book takes you on a journey that unpacks and demystifies what spiritual growth is and how it unfolds. The aim is to set you on your own path toward genuine, personal spiritual transformation. The book provides all the tools you need—biblical, scientific, and practical—so that you can develop your own pathway for spiritual growth. What is unique about Victor Copan's approach to spiritual growth is that he explores recent findings of brain research as well as scientific research on habit formation and brings them into conversation with the process of spiritual formation. Research on the brain and on habit formation has uncovered significant insights about the process and dynamics of human transformation that can be fruitfully incorporated into our own pursuit of spiritual transformation. Tapping into this research allows us to work in concert with how God designed humans to function—body, soul, and spirit.

The Crisis: People who are in rebellion are not the only ones with hard hearts. The dictionary defines hard when it applies to matters of the heart as being "cold; insensitive; callous; unfeeling; unyielding." This malady has stricken every Christian in some area of their life. This is what keeps us from hearing the voice of the Lord and being led by Him in our everyday lives. The Cause: The condition of our heart is determined by what we focus our attention on. It doesn't matter what we know, it's what we think on that controls whether our hearts is hard or soft (Proverbs 23:7). Once this is understood, this same law that will sensitize us towards God can be used to harden us towards the devil. The Cure: The Cure for a hardened heart is a total commitment to keep our minds stayed on the Lord. This teaching will give you one of the clearest understandings of the relationship between faith and unbelief that you have ever had.
