something new is fun;
it can also be a challenge. Many times
we are required to learn something new
with our job and there are times when we are interested in something and want to learn more about it.
That's why a coaching business offers a great way to make some nice profits. There is so much information out there so it seems very easy to just do some research and find what it is you need to know. How easy is it to apply your new found knowledge in a real life situation, and how much can you trust the information out there? It is not really that simple. Learning something and doing something are two different things. Learning something and putting it into practice takes time, patience, and a good coach. This is where you come in handy. Think of your current niche, and as you are thinking about it, is there something within your niche that people need or want help with? Maybe you cannot think of something within your niche, so below are ten coaching businesses examples. The purpose is to give you the coacher ideas within different niches, then go back and think of ways you can create a coaching business within your own niche. If you still cannot think of anything within your niche, then it can be a totally separate business from what you have right now. Read each one and think about it. Then read it again thinking of ways you can apply that knowledge to your own business.

difference! But, the truth is that not all life coaches are successful. Some never learn the skills they need to create a thriving business, and others get stuck because they're only able to reach a certain level of success, and income, by meeting one-on-one with clients. There is only so much time in a day, some of which is spent on marketing and other business-related-stuff. Once a coach fills their schedule with clients, they reach the ceiling of their growth. Their only option is to raise their rates, but this isn't always easy or even appropriate, depending on the population they serve. The good news is that there is a way to serve more people and increase revenue at the same time. The secret to creating a successful life coaching business is offering group life coaching programs. Think about it, much of what you do with each client is exactly the same. If you say the same thing 10 times to 10 different people, why not say it to all of them at once? If you develop a program out of your coaching process, you can walk a group of people through the same coaching activities and steps, together. By creating a group coaching business, you can: 1) reach more people in less time, 2) offer an easy-to-sell low-cost option, 3) upsell your favorite clients to one-on-one coaching, 4) create a more predictable schedule and income, and 5) increase your per-hour revenue ($50 x 10 is greater than $150 x 1). In this book, you will find the exact blueprint that thousands of our life coaching students have used to create their own group life coaching programs. You'll learn everything you need to: 1) turn the process you use with your clients into a complete group coaching curriculum, 2) learn professional communication and facilitation skills so you can effectively manage and lead your group, and 3) structure your offer, set your price, and create marketing campaigns that fill your groups.

Is this blue book more valuable than a business degree? Most people enter their professional careers not understanding how to grow a business. At times, this makes them feel lost, or worse, like a fraud pretending to know what they're doing. It's hard to be successful without a clear understanding of how business works. These 60 daily readings are crucial for any professional or business owner who wants to take their career to the next level. New York Times and Wall Street Journal bestselling author, Donald Miller knows that business is more than just a good idea made profitable - it's a system of unspoken rules, rarely taught by MBA schools. If you are attempting to profitably grow your business or career, you need elite business knowledge—knowledge that creates tangible value. Even if you had the time, access, or money to attend a Top 20 business school, you would still be missing the practical knowledge that propels the best and brightest forward. However, there is another way to achieve this insider skill development, which can both drastically improve your career earnings and the satisfaction of achieving your goals. Donald Miller learned how to rise to the top using the principles he shares in this book. He wrote Business Made Simple to teach others what it takes to grow your career and create a company that is healthy and profitable. These short, daily entries and accompanying videos will add enormous value to your business and the organization you work for. In this sixty-day guide, readers will be introduced to the nine areas where truly successful leaders and their businesses excel: Character: What kind of person succeeds in business? Leadership: How do you unite a team around a mission? Personal Productivity: How can you get more done in less time? Messaging: Why aren't customers paying more attention? Marketing: How do I build a sales funnel? Business Strategy: How does a business really work? Execution: How can we get things done? Sales: How do I close more sales? Management: What does a good manager do? Business Made

Simple is the must-have guide for anyone who feels lost or overwhelmed by the modern business climate, even if they attended business school. Learn what the most successful business leaders have known for years through the simple but effective secrets shared in these pages.
