Life is an adventure to embark upon. Having traveled around the world, my life has been full of separations, and new beginnings. Time flows incessantly, no matter what happens around us. The last six years of my life describe a unique journey from high school in Sudan to a university in Canada. The experience enabled me to learn the importance of family, friends, and love—along with the need to live life without regrets. My story begins with my struggles as an eleventh grader at Khartoum American School in Sudan, revealing the raw emotions of my first infatuation with a girl, her rejection, and my subsequent efforts to move on without her. Nothing could have prepared me then for the sequence of events that were to unfold in my life that summer, and the few years that followed. It all began when I found a friend in Tina. Our Last Summer offers a poignant glimpse into a young man's coming-of-age journey through laughter, tears, betrayal, infatuation, and love as he cherishes the memories of his past, learns to live in the present, and happily anticipates his future.

All of the stories contained in this book actually happened. There are many other stories which have been left out because there are just too many cases to cover over fifty years of law practice. Every lawyer has legal stories to tell provided that clients cases must be kept confidential. The "attorney-client privilege" must always be maintained. Lawyers are all bound by a "Code of Ethics." They are not permitted to do just anything they feel like doing. Honesty, scruples morals, respect and integrity are key to being a good lawyer. The work of the lawyer is to help people in legal need. As stated in Deuteronomy, 16:20 "Justice, Justice Shall Though Pursue."
