Energetic, sexy, and funny -- Claire and Dan know there's a catch when rich and stingy Mrs. Shelby Bell invites them to be her guests at The Bell Sands, her oceanfront resort hotel east of Biloxi, Mississippi. They accept, but when they arrive at the hotel during a torrential rainstorm, they become caught up in a beauty contest run amok. No carefree bliss in sun and surf -- the Claibornes have their work cut out, trying to discover who's sabotaging the pageant and who's responsible for several murders. Meanwhile, a hurricane is blowing toward the Coast. As Claire and Dan get too close to the murderer, they find themselves cut loose at sea in the storm.

Ride a bull. Chat up a Senator. And get your homework in on time. It's all in a day's work for a festival queen. If you assume all pageant queens are airheads who can't handle geography, or vain girls who like to parade around in bathing suits, then welcome to the alternative universe of America's festival queens. With titles like Catfish Queen and Swine Queen, and royal duties ranging from leading parades to kissing frogs to doing PR for local industries, these hardworking girls represent the best of what America has to offer: local cultures, unique traditions, and the kind of can-do community spirit that makes Main Street sparkle with promise. The Rhinestone Sisterhood takes us deep into the world of small-town festival queens to capture the true story of four "sisters of the sash"—the Frog, Fur, Cotton, and Cattle Queens of Louisiana—and their quest to win the ultimate crown, Queen of Queens. Traveling across the state, David Valdes

Greenwood introduces us to local queens with lives full of public speaking, pig chases, and pageant politics. We ride with the girls during their one-year reign, where families and boyfriends can be as complicated as judge's panels, and a queen's dreams may be at the mercy of a Category 4 hurricane. High-spirited yet down-home, suspenseful and genuinely moving, The Rhinestone Sisterhood is, at heart, a story of female friendship and rivalry, of triumph and disappointment—not to mention a Frog Queen who just wouldn't quit. Anyone who has ever wanted to be a princess will feel right at home.

 True or False: Princeton's Director of Admissions hacked into Yale's secured admissions website to find out who Yale had accepted and rejected. Boston College's average SAT score is up to 1370 and Boston University's average SAT score is up to 1320. Carnegie Mellon offers spots on a priority wait-list to students who send in cash and most of these students get admitted. Well, it's all true. An FBI investigation traced Yale's hacked website back to the computer of Princeton's Director of Admissions, Stephen LeMenager. Boston College's average SAT score is the same as Cornell's and close to Penn's (both Ivies). Carnegie Mellon does have a "priority" wait-list-it costs $400 to be on it and the admissions rate is 95%. Welcome to the circus. Dazed and Confused. Students see the college list published by their high school's guidance department listing every acceptance and rejection from the prior year. Next to each entry is a GPA, a SAT score and the number of AP classes taken. The list is usually ordered from highest to lowest GPA. The first entry: 4.19 (unweighted), 1430 SAT, 7 AP classes, Princeton-rejected, Yale-rejected, Harvard-rejected, Stanford-rejected, Columbia-rejected, Vassar-accepted. Ouch. Scan down the list looking for Yale. Did anyone get into Yale last year? Down at the ninth entry: 3.93, 1450 SAT, 6 AP classes, Brown-accepted, Yale-accepted, Georgetown-accepted. Okay, anyone else? Scan down to the twenty-second entry: 3.88, 1560 SAT, 7

AP classes, Yale-accepted, Duke-accepted, William and Mary-rejected. This doesn't make any sense, thinks the student. Many of the students with the best grades didn't get into any top colleges and still others were rejected at colleges ranked lower than the colleges to which they were accepted. A fresh exploration of American feminist history told through the lens of the beauty pageant world. Many predicted that pageants would disappear by the 21st century. Yet they are thriving.

America's most enduring contest, Miss America, celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2020. Why do they persist? In Here She Is, Hilary Levey Friedman reveals the surprising ways pageants have been an empowering feminist tradition. She traces the role of pageants in many of the feminist movement's signature achievements, including bringing women into the public sphere, helping them become leaders in business and politics, providing increased educational opportunities, and giving them a voice in the age of #MeToo. Using her unique perspective as a NOW state president, daughter to Miss America 1970, sometimes pageant judge, and scholar, Friedman explores how pageants became so deeply embedded in American life from their origins as a P.T. Barnum spectacle at the birth of the suffrage movement, through Miss Universe's bathing beauties to the talent- and achievement-based competitions of today. She looks at how pageantry has morphed into culture everywhere from The Bachelor and RuPaul's Drag Race to cheer and specialized contests like those for children, Indigenous women, and contestants with disabilities. Friedman also acknowledges the damaging and unrealistic expectations pageants place on women in society and discusses the controversies, including Miss America's ableist and racist history, Trump's ownership of the Miss Universe Organization, and the death of child pageant-winner JonBenét Ramsey. Presenting a more complex narrative than what's been previously portrayed, Here She Is shows that as American women continue to evolve, so too will beauty pageants.

One teen beauty pageant. One meet cute waiting to happen. Up and coming fanfic author Kaylee Beaumont is internally screaming at the chance to finally meet her fandom friends in real life and spend a weekend at GreatCon. She also has a side quest for the weekend: · Try out they/them pronouns to see how it feels · Wear more masculine-presenting cosplay · Kiss a girl for the first time It's...a lot, and Kay mostly wants to lie face down on the hotel floor. Especially when her hometown bully, Miss North Carolina, shows up in the very same hotel. But there's this con-sponsored publishing contest, and the chance to meet her fandom idols...and then, there's Teagan. Pageant queen Teagan Miller (Miss Virginia) has her eye on the much-needed prize: the $25,000 scholarship awarded to the winner of the Miss Cosmic Teen USA pageant. She also has secrets: · She loves the dresses but hates the tiaras · She's a giant nerd for everything GreatCon · She's gay af If Teagan can just keep herself wrapped up tight for one more weekend, she can claim the scholarship and go off to college out and proud. If she's caught, she could lose everything she's worked for. If her rival, Miss North Carolina, has anything to do with it, that's exactly how it'll go down. When Teagan and Kay bump into one another the first night, sparks fly. Their connection is intense—as is their shared enemy. If they're spotted, the safe space of the con will be shattered, and all their secrets will follow them home. The risks are great...but could the reward of embracing their true selves be worth it? A big-hearted, joyful romance and a love letter to all things geek, Remi K. A middle-grade fantasy novel about a half-angel, half-mermaid discovering her identity and fighting to protect the Laws of the Universe and the fate of the realms of land, sea and sky from the forces of evil. From the shore, the sky, and the depths of the sea, an epic adventure awaits. Stella Merriss has never felt like she belonged anywhere—her family was always on the run. During a daring escape her parents suddenly disappear into stormy, shark-infested waters. Alone and unsure of her future, she learns the truth: that she’s actually half angel, half mermaid. Stella has no choice but to join an elite angel apprenticeship program where—despite having to hide her illegal dual nature—she finally feels as though she has found a home. But villainous forces are gathering to strike against Stella’s newfound home and attack the three Timekeepers who spin and weave the fateful Thread of Life. Evil Lord Sylvain and his army will stop at nothing to corrupt the Laws of the Universe and bend them toward his own vile agenda.

A child of land, sea, and sky is the only obstacle standing in his way. In this battle between good and evil, Stella and her friends must defend against the armies of Lord Sylvain or see the realms of land, sea, and sky plunged into chaos.

Do you want to know EXACTLY what to change to WIN your pageant? Do you need a PAGEANT COACH that isn't afraid to tell you the truth? Listen, YOU know you are meant for something SPECTACULAR, but you haven't cracked the code to win big. You're in the right place. This honest and direct book will teach you exactly what you need to know to show up for your pageant as a TOP CONTENDER, positioned to WIN and prepared to perform with the greatest CONFIDENCE. Beauty, Truth and Grace is like having your personal coach in your back pocket - an entire coaching system with step-by-step trainings that leave nothing to chance. You'll know you're on the RIGHT path. Pageantry is a beautiful, wonderful, EXCITING world - especially if you win. Listen, it's no secret that pageantry gets confusing. It sometimes feels like they want it to be complex so that it's harder to win. Pageant contestants get confused by the often conflicting ideas of what it really take for a woman to climb to the top. When you're new to pageantry or just haven't had a title big enough to break into this wild, beautiful, thrilling world, it's hard to know what really goes on in the judges' minds and what the competition is doing to STAND OUT. The simple concepts that are revealed in Beauty, Truth and Grace show you EXACTLY how to prepare so you are easily positioned to win. Alycia has been coaching clients around the globe for over 10 years. She is the host of the iTunes #1 pageant podcast and creator of her signature course, Pageant Interview Game Plan. Alycia has competed in every major pageant system across the United States and held several titles including Miss Maryland and Miss California. She has judged pageants, hosted pageants, choreographed for pageants, and now coaches women to win their pageants around the world. Alycia's master's degree in adult learning theory allows her to structure her training to best adhere to a woman so that her techniques are easily understood and perfectly aligned. Her success has allowed her to be featured in magazines and tv shows including OK! Magazine, PopSugarTV, The Steve Harvey Show, NBC, and more. No one has a better combination of the breadth of experience and technical training than Alycia does to deliver this level of coaching in such a simple form for you to apply to your own pageant preparation. Alycia breaks down all the phases of Comprehensive Pageant Preparation Plan into an easy-to-follow guide for you that will simplify the complexities of pageantry so that you can see exactly what separates winners from the rest of the competition. After reading this book, you'll be able to:

- Showcase your pageant BRAND on stage
- Communicate to your judges why YOU are the BEST person to win the pageant
- Control your pageant INTERVIEW (even before you arrive)
- Manage your nerves and Speak with ease
- Stand out as the Most OBVIOUS choice to win the pageant

In order to win you have to do three things:

1. Radiate Beauty so everyone you meet will want to know you and adore you.
2. Know the Truth about what you bring to the table as a winner so that no one can beat you.
3. Present Grace with your look, communication, and performance

HINT: it doesn't have to cost a lot of money to win, but I'll show you how to raise big bucks if you want to spend a lot anyway Follow the advice in this book and you will be able to confidently compete against even the most seasoned pageant competition. You'll get immediate clarity about how you can soar in pageantry and take home the crown - it's simpler than you think. Are you ready to win your pageant? Sarah Banet-Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual. She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular, considering its claim to be an accurate representation of the diversity of contemporary American women.

Exploring the cultural constructions and legitimations that go on during the long process of the pageant, Banet-Weiser depicts the beauty pageant stage as a place where concerns about national identity, cultural hopes and desires, and anxieties about race and gender are crystallized and condensed. The beauty pageant, she convincingly demonstrates, is a profoundly political arena deserving of serious study. Drawing on cultural criticism, ethnographic research, and interviews with pageant participants and officials, The Most Beautiful Girl in the World illustrates how contestants invent and reinvent themselves while articulating the female body as a national body. Banet-Weiser finds that most pageants are characterized by the ambivalence of contemporary "liberal" feminism, which encourages individual achievement, self-determination, and civic responsibility, while simultaneously promoting very conventional notions of beauty. The book explores the many different aspects of the Miss America pageant, including the swimsuit, the interview, and the talent competitions. It also takes a closer look at some extraordinary Miss Americas, such as Bess Myerson, the first Jewish Miss America; Vanessa Williams, the first African American Miss America; and Heather Whitestone, the first Miss America with a disability.
