The first and greatest commandment is this: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind." Medieval monk and church leader St. Bernard of Clairvaux explores four stages of love by which the follower of Christ moves from selfishness deeper and deeper into a life of all-consuming love for Almighty God. His deeply insightful words, penned centuries ago, ring just as inspiring and true today as they did the day they were written.

A New View of the Old Rugged Cross Let Cross Purposes spark a fresh revival of love in your heart for the One who cherished you enough to make the ultimate sacrifice. Each of the 48 short devotional readings will help you approach the crucifixion of Jesus Christ from a different perspective. Together they'll take you on a moving journey to the very core of your faith...to explore the truths that matter most in our lives: ·At the cross you'll find a clearer focus of God's purpose for your time on earth. ·At the cross you'll find Him opening your heart and mind to more fully receive His intimate love. ·At the cross you'll find Him sharing with you His victory over all evil and connecting you to His eternal plan for all humanity. So let these pages bring you before the cross to explore its depths from the Lord's perspective—so you'll never forget all He's done.

The Power of God's Love Thomas Nelson
Do you love the Lord? That is an important question! Our Lord, Jesus Christ, asked Peter, "Peter do you love me? Why is your love for God something that we need to discuss? Jesus says the greatest commandment is that you should "love the Lord your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind." Sometimes, there are circumstances thrown together and presented to you by the Lord that are simply tests, tests to prove your love for the Lord. If you love the Lord, prove it by passing the tests of love! Another amazing book by renowned author, Dag Heward-Mills, which will set you thinking and asking yourself the all-important question "Do I really love the Lord?"

The new book "In Love with the Whirlwind"-"When God Takes Your Heart by Storm"-a true report of the author's pursuit of relationship with the Godhead: Jesus, the Holy Spirit, and God the Father. Susan Davis shares how God entered her life and how it was not ever the same again for her and her son. Davis' book is written to a generation that has strayed from God to other lovers-entertainment, career, and family and lost its way to its one true love. Davis wants people to think about what this life really means and what are we really supposed to be doing. She talks about life's toughest and deepest questions but does it in a light-hearted way. "I want people to see that God is real, wonderful, and waiting on us all to be in relationship with Him," shares author Susan Davis. "Because God is supernatural-when you get closer to Him you can't help but experience the supernatural and that is what happened to us." Davis playfully explores and examines issues that deals directly with the heart of Jesus, Holy Spirit, and the Father demonstrating that there is only one true life: through Christ. Everything else is a fraud. "In Love with the Whirlwind" is fun, playful, honest, real, and deep all at the same time. <http://sites.advancedministry.com/lovethewhirlwind> Author email: lovethewhirlwind@sbcglobal.net Facebook: in love with the whirlwind *Become a facebook fan of In Love with

If you're feeling lost, disconnected, or longing for something more, join bestselling authors John Eldredge and Brent Curtis as they explore the greatest love of our lives: our faith. The Sacred Romance invites us to find the peace and purpose we crave by slowing down, asking questions, and deepening our relationship with God. Eldredge and Curtis believe that modern Christians have lost touch with our hearts. We've left that essential part of ourselves behind in the pursuit of efficiency, success, and the busyness of our lives. The Sacred Romance will guide you through a journey to getting to know yourself and your creator even better, asking you: What is this restlessness and emptiness I feel, sometimes after years into my Christian journey? How will my spiritual life touch the rest of my life? What is it that is set so deeply in my heart, that simply will not leave me alone? When did I stop listening to God's leading? The Sacred Romance is a journey of the heart.

It is a journey full of intimacy, adventure, and beauty, that will guide you to your fondest memories, your greatest loves, your noblest achievements, and even your deepest hurts--but the reward is worth the risk.

Love vs. Fear Thomas Nelson

How to grow in love for your church. God calls us to be "devoted to one another in love" (Romans 12:10). What does this look like for us today? How can we be the kind of church member who makes a real difference? This engaging book by Tony Merida explores what church is, why being part of it is exciting, and why it's worthy of our love and commitment. He sets out eight privileges and responsibilities of a church member: to belong, to welcome, to gather, to care, to serve, to honour, to witness and to send. As we see how wonderful it is to belong to God's family and be a part of his amazing witness to both the earthly and the heavenly realms, we'll grow in our love for and commitment to our local church. This is a great book for every churchgoer to read, whether they're new or have been attending for some time but need re-energising with God's vision for the local church. With a discussion guide at the end of the book, Love Your Church is also a great resource for small groups.

This book is about discovering together how to understand and live the Greatest Commandment. We're not after the "art of thinking about God a little differently." We're here to uncover the needs God created within us--needs for meaning, intimacy, honesty, humility, justice, compassion, and more--and how he designed us to find those needs fulfilled in him. This is the art of living Jesus' spirituality. God gives us the key in the Greatest Commandment, but we've got to do this stuff in the right order. Imagine I invite you to my sweet cabin by the lake. To start hanging out in that cabin, you need to get the key from me, pack your car, follow the GPS, and so on. There's a natural order to it. It's the same with the Greatest Commandment. We begin upward, with loving God. The God. God of the Old Testament, God of the New Testament. God the Trinity--Father, Son, Holy Spirit. We continue inward, with understanding our true identities in Jesus. And when we get those things right, God's Spirit sends us outward, on mission into the world. These three movements--upward, inward, and outward--mirror the Greatest Commandment and help us learn the art of living harmoniously together in a chaotic world.

You'll understand that you're able to lay all your problems, stress, and struggles in God's hands. In him, you'll find fulfillment and peace. When you're done reading this book, you'll truly see just how blessed, special, and important you really are. You'll have a whole new outlook and view on life.

WestBow Press

The True Love of Jesus Christ: The Difference between Eternal Life and Death is a book based on God's love for us. God loves us so very much that He sent His only begotten son, Jesus Christ, which is Him in the flesh, to die for the world since whoever believes in Him may have everlasting life and not everlasting death. I can assure you that Jesus is our Savior and that the words that have been written to us are true; He purged my sins away personally and took profanity off my tongue in one day. If you read in James, He tells us that the tongue can only be tamed by the power of the Holy Spirit, and I assure you that He can do so. He has done that for me, and it took one day for me to repent, which means to turn around and change the inner man or woman and become obedient, which also means to live as close to the will of His Father, our father, as we can. We are not perfect, by all means, and never will be, so love the Lord your God with all your heart, mind, body, and soul. The next thing we have to do is a lot like loving our Lord with all of our heart, mind, body, and soul. It is loving your neighbor as you love yourself. If you love your neighbor as you love yourself, you wouldn't lie to yourself, you wouldn't steal from yourself, you wouldn't kill yourself, so on and so forth. This is just an example of how we are supposed to live. I am so glad to be able to share the love and knowledge the Lord has given to me. Knowledge becomes wisdom when knowledge is applied, so I am here to tell you I love you, my friends. Amen. Praise the Lord.

If you Love the Lord Ziklag Publishers
In this book, the author explains love in general and also the love of God, for we usually love because of something. This book teaches us about true love and forgiveness. The author tried to understand God's love. How is it born? How does it manifest around us? Can one truly love if he hasn't forgiven? The Bible says in 1 John 4:8 that "He who doesn't love doesn't know God for God is love." Because God is love "it means that the seed to love is within us, we have the capacity or the ability to love. She's tried to understand the love of God for He said in his word in the book of Corinthians that "the greatest things are love, faith, and hope, but love is greatest one for everything will pass but love will remain." He also says in the same word, "Heaven and earth will pass but not his word," and the Bible also said, "In the beginning was the word and the word was with God and the word was God." It means that the word of God is God, and God is love then she understood that the word of God is love that's why the word of God teaches us about love and forgiveness.

The Father's Heart Crossway

God says, Love each other, even as I have loved you. So how do we fulfill this command? By learning to love from the Creator of all love. For only God equips and teaches us to love like He loves. And oh, how He longs for us all to be His children on earth, with a working knowledge of the power of true love. When the world senses the aroma of God's love, they want to draw close to Him, which is His deepest desire. Come explore the very heart of God, and see why love is the greatest gift we must master as if everything else depends on it!

The Love of God WaterBrook

This book on marriage aims to guide you to discover or rediscover the love you have for each other. It is the unconditional love we seek in our own relationship. L. Garcia Muro's message to all, "I love sharing God's words; He is my savior, teacher, healer, and protector. I live for God and each day I pray for God to continue to bless my marriage. I wrote this book to share God's words, it doesn't matter if you have been married one year or 30 years, reading God's words will only enhance the love you share for one another".

Why I Love the Apostle Paul Thomas Nelson

Your Great Love is about a girl named Elizabeth who goes to her parent's farm and goes where God leads her. She loves His amazing, great and everlasting love. "But God shows His love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8. "But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-by grace you have been saved." Ephesians 2:4-5.

Daily Prayer 2020 Author House

The greatest gift the world has is God's love for us. The love God has for us precipitated God sending us Jesus to bring us back into a loving fellowship with him. With all the hate, evil, and pain that exist in the world, humanity cannot forget the power of love and the sovereignty of God.

God is love, and since God is sovereign, love still reigns not only in the hearts of men and women but in the heart of God, and it is inextricably interwoven within our salvation story. Our Christian salvific story is one of love; it is a narrator of love. We were made to love and made to be loved. We were made in the image of God, and God being love denotes we were made to love, be loved, and desire a relationship with those we love. God desires a relationship with us because he loves us. The love of the Father is manifested through the deeds of Jesus Christ in the Father's desired to be back in relationship with his creation. The love God has for his creation must be dramatize and visualized in how we love one another and relate to those we love. God's will need to be done on earth as it is in heaven. Henrietta Hunter's Jesus My Valentine explores how interconnected the love we experience in our personal lives (i.e. romantically, platonically) to our love for God. She demonstrates this by outlining how the love and passion that the lover in Songs of Solomon possesses for his love is an extended analogy to God's love for us and how God's people ought to pursue him as their lover. Her work calls readers to experience God's love through the way we experience love with others; reciprocally, the way readers experience love with one another is the same way readers are to experience being in love with God. Henrietta introduced the magnitude of love on a horizontal level, which is eye level, a level reader can grasp and then raise our spiritual conscious to above-eye level, which is a vertical love. Jesus My Valentine argues both are necessary to truly make Jesus our valentine. It is when Jesus become our valentine that we come to know true love and the true meaning of true love, realizing it is impossible for Jesus to be your valentine without the love of people and the people without Jesus being your valentine is not possible. Henrietta's journey within Jesus My Valentine takes us from the historicity of Valentine's Day to the evolution of how we contemporarily celebrate Valentine's Day. She matriculates from a historical view of Valentine's Day to a theological view of Valentine's Day, moving from an anthropocentric (human) view of love to a theocentric (God) view of love. Jesus My Valentine calls readers to replicate the wooing they extend on Valentines for their lovers to how readers approach and love on Jesus. Henrietta outlines how readers are to love Jesus and make him their valentine in very practical ways. If you asked Henrietta how to make Jesus your valentine? According to this text, she would suggest it is like the way a wife knows her husband and the way a husband gets to know his wife. It is a love that comes from a knowledge that is only generated by living together, by responding to each other's daily interests and by the needs, and by listening and being present.
